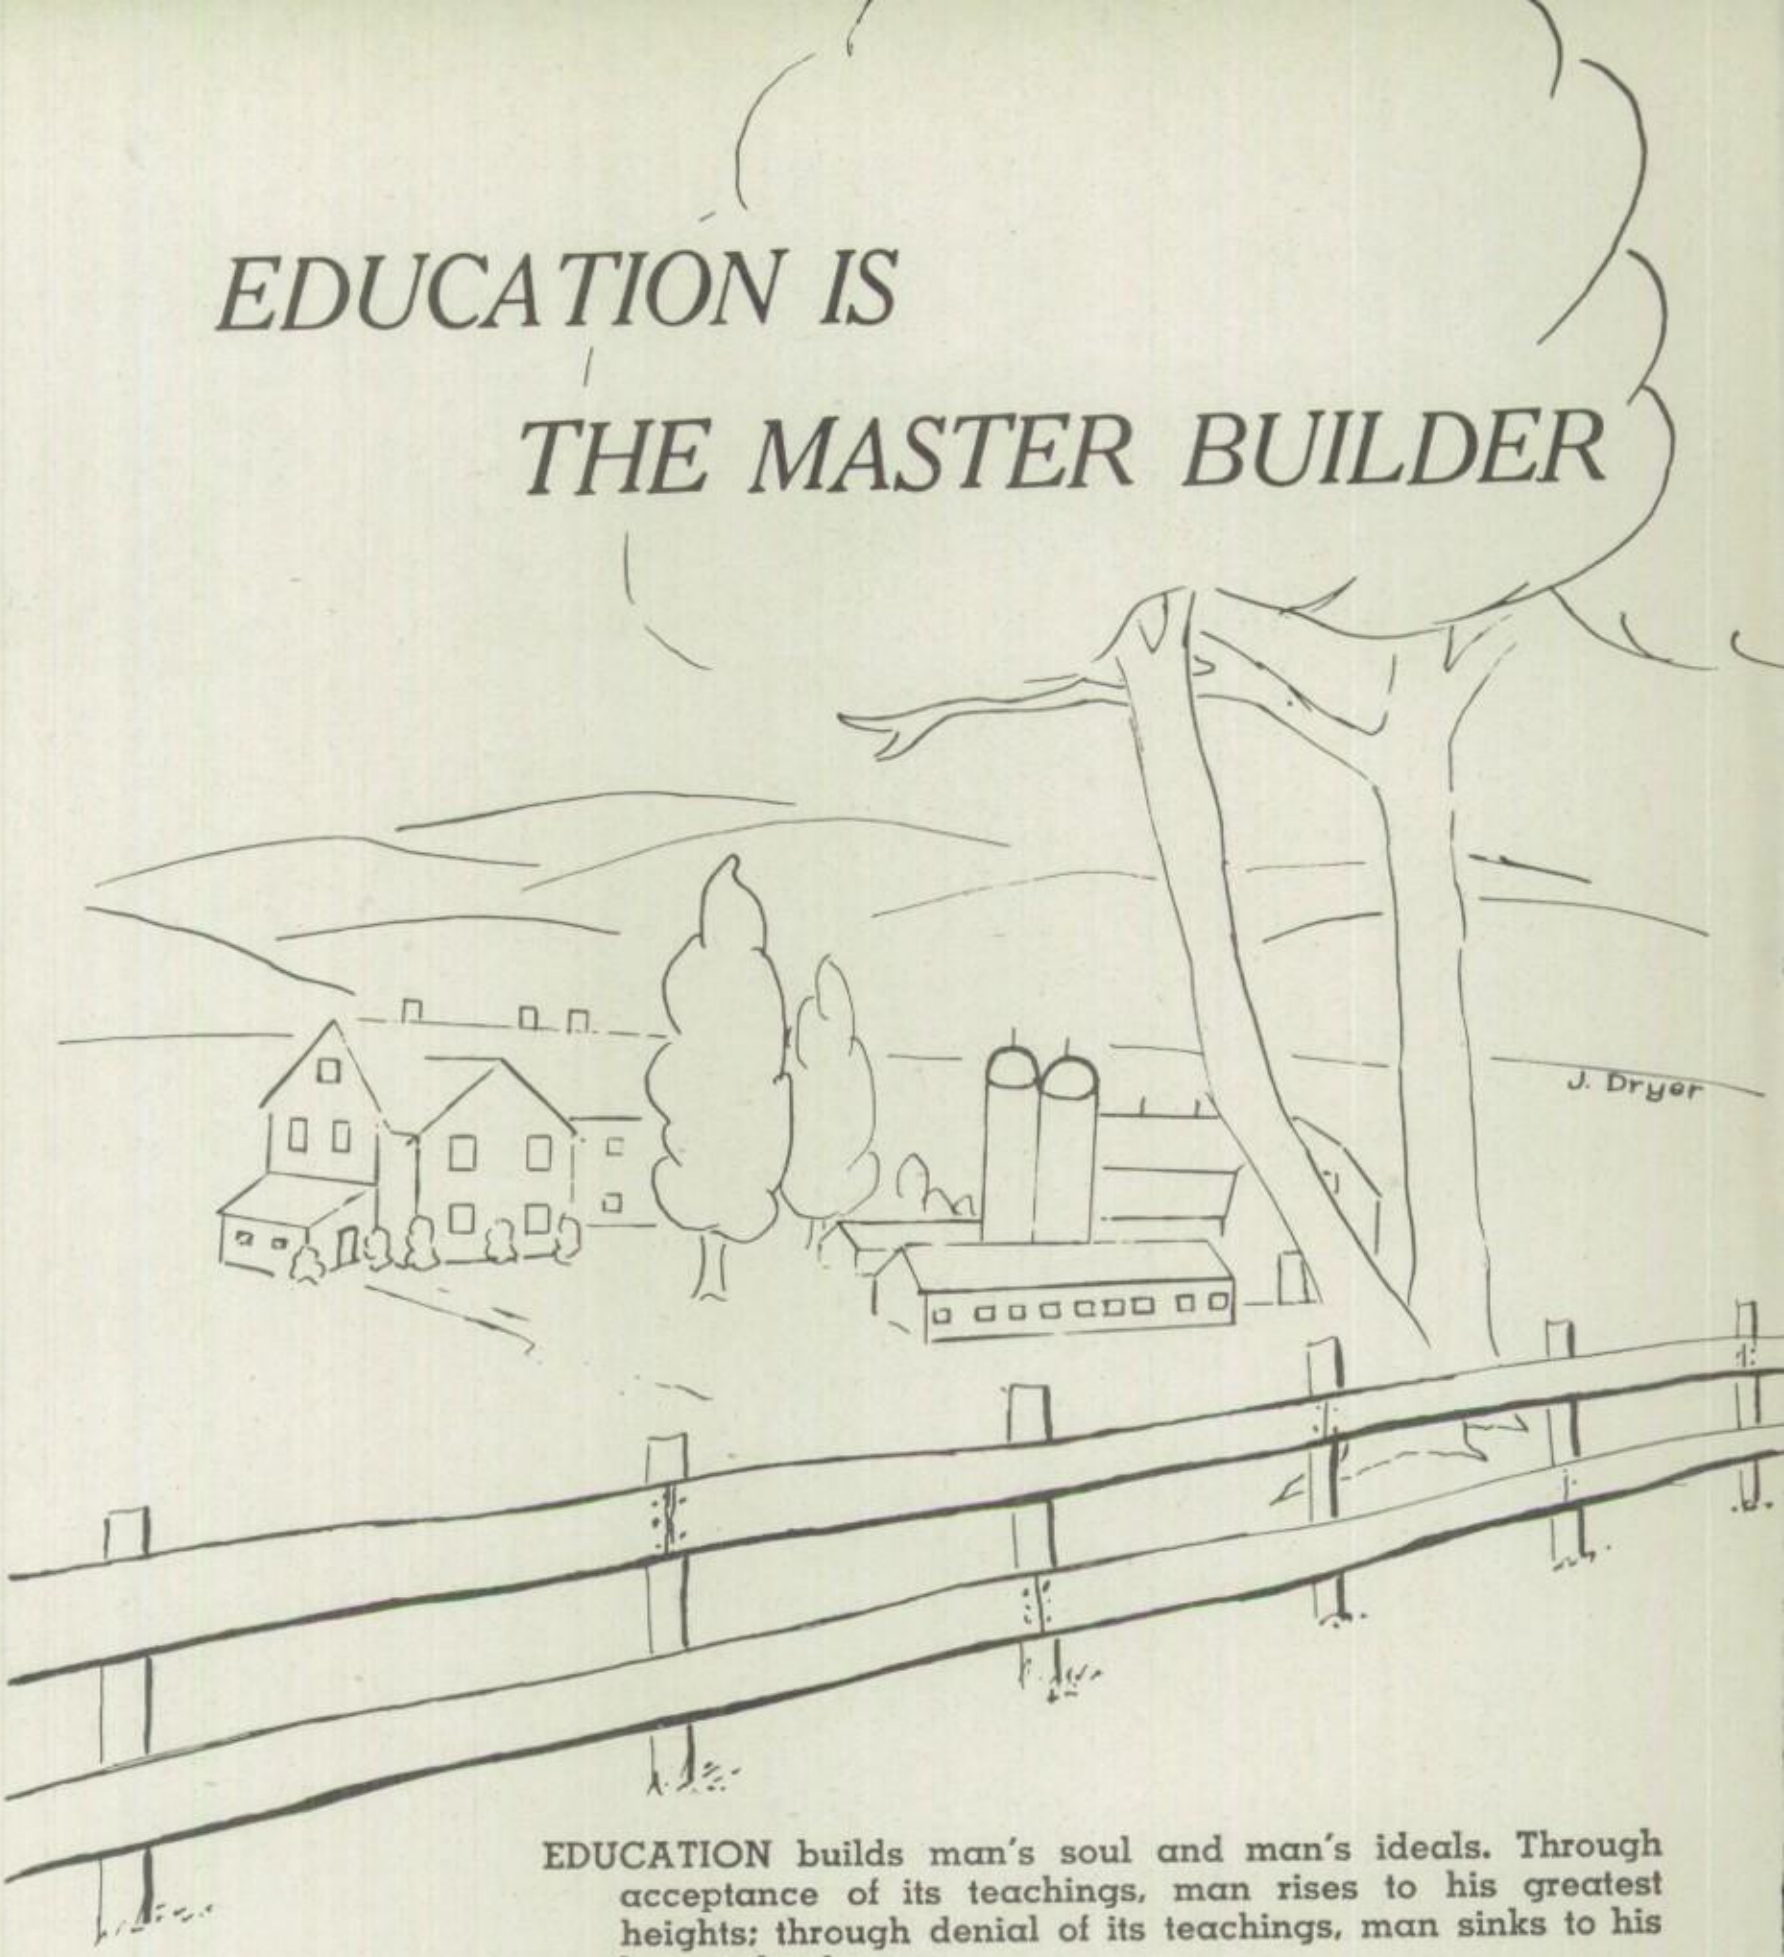
FOREWORD

EDUCATION IS THE MASTER BUILDER



EDUCATION builds man's soul and man's ideals. Through acceptance of its teachings, man rises to his greatest heights; through denial of its teachings, man sinks to his lowest depths.

EDUCATION builds man's trust in God. It builds a trust so secure that man will fight to the death for his faith. It transforms Man's dreams into realities; his hopes, into fulfilment. It raises man's living standards, encourages his creative ability, and stimulates cultural enjoyment.

EDUCATION is constantly building for a peacetime world. Its goal is universal understanding and brotherhood.

EDUCATION is man's staff in his age-long, uphill struggle. It is his charter for the re-building of a world ravaged by war.

EDUCATION is the greatest instrument for Peace.

EDUCATION is the hope of the world.

EDUCATION is the master builder.

Betty Williams, Editor-in-Chief

BOARD OF EDUCATION

A mere expression of gratitude from the entire student body is but small appreciation for the efficient management of the Fairport schools. The Fairport School Board is responsible for the maintenance of the school buildings, the selection of a capable teaching staff, and the administration of educational affairs in the village schools. These thoroughly unselfish citizens, who give of their time and effort without remumeration, have earned the respect of the entire community.

Supt. Coffee, Treas. Bruischaart, Clerk Cornish, Pres. Peacock

DEDICATION

EDWARD K. SCHWORM

For many years, students and community have received copies of the HOUR GLASS, thumbed them through and shelved them without fully comprehending the burden of work shouldered by the Business Adviser. In this capacity Mr. Schworm has faithfully handled the advertising and sales programs from year to year.

His other duties include a full day's teaching of commercial subjects, student treasury auditing, and management of athletic gate receipts. Cups on display in the typing room attest to his ability as an instructor.

The Senior Class is proud to acknowledge the splendid service and cheerful co-operation of this teacher and friend. To him, we dedicate the 1945 edition of the HOUR GLASS.

OH, YOU CHICKEN!

"She laid the still white form where others had gone before. No sound, no cry from her. A deathly silence hung over the place, foreboding and indistinct.

"Suddenly she let forth a shrill cry which blasted the air into a thousand echoes. It seemed as if her very soul would break with the manifested agony. Then all was silence once more—

"She will lay another egg tomorrow."

OLDEST LIVING
GRADUATE

Mr. Charles Butler
Class of 1883

Oldest living graduate of F. H. S. — school teacher, lawyer, village mayor, and town supervisor, Mr. Charles Butler, still active at eighty-five, resides at his home, 7 Pleasant Street, Fairport, New York.

GREETINGS! NINETEEN FORTY-FIVE

Five quickly passing decades now have flown
Since through these hallowed portals we did move
To challenge life and make its test our own:
That what we would become, ourselves must prove.

Now, to you, Class of Nineteen Forty-five,
May we of half a century ago
Affectionately urge you all to strive
To reach the goals we also strove to know?

Thus proving, with your hearts both strong and pure,
That ideals in these sacred precincts taught
Will through eventful years their worth insure,
And compensate for labors you have wrought.

MR. THOMAS G. COFFEE

TWENTY YEARS OF COMMUNITY SERVICE

1925 to 1945!

A span of twenty busy, harmonious years — years of incalcuable service to school and community, years of participation in civic and state-wide affairs — this is the enviable record of Superintendent Thomas G. Coffee.

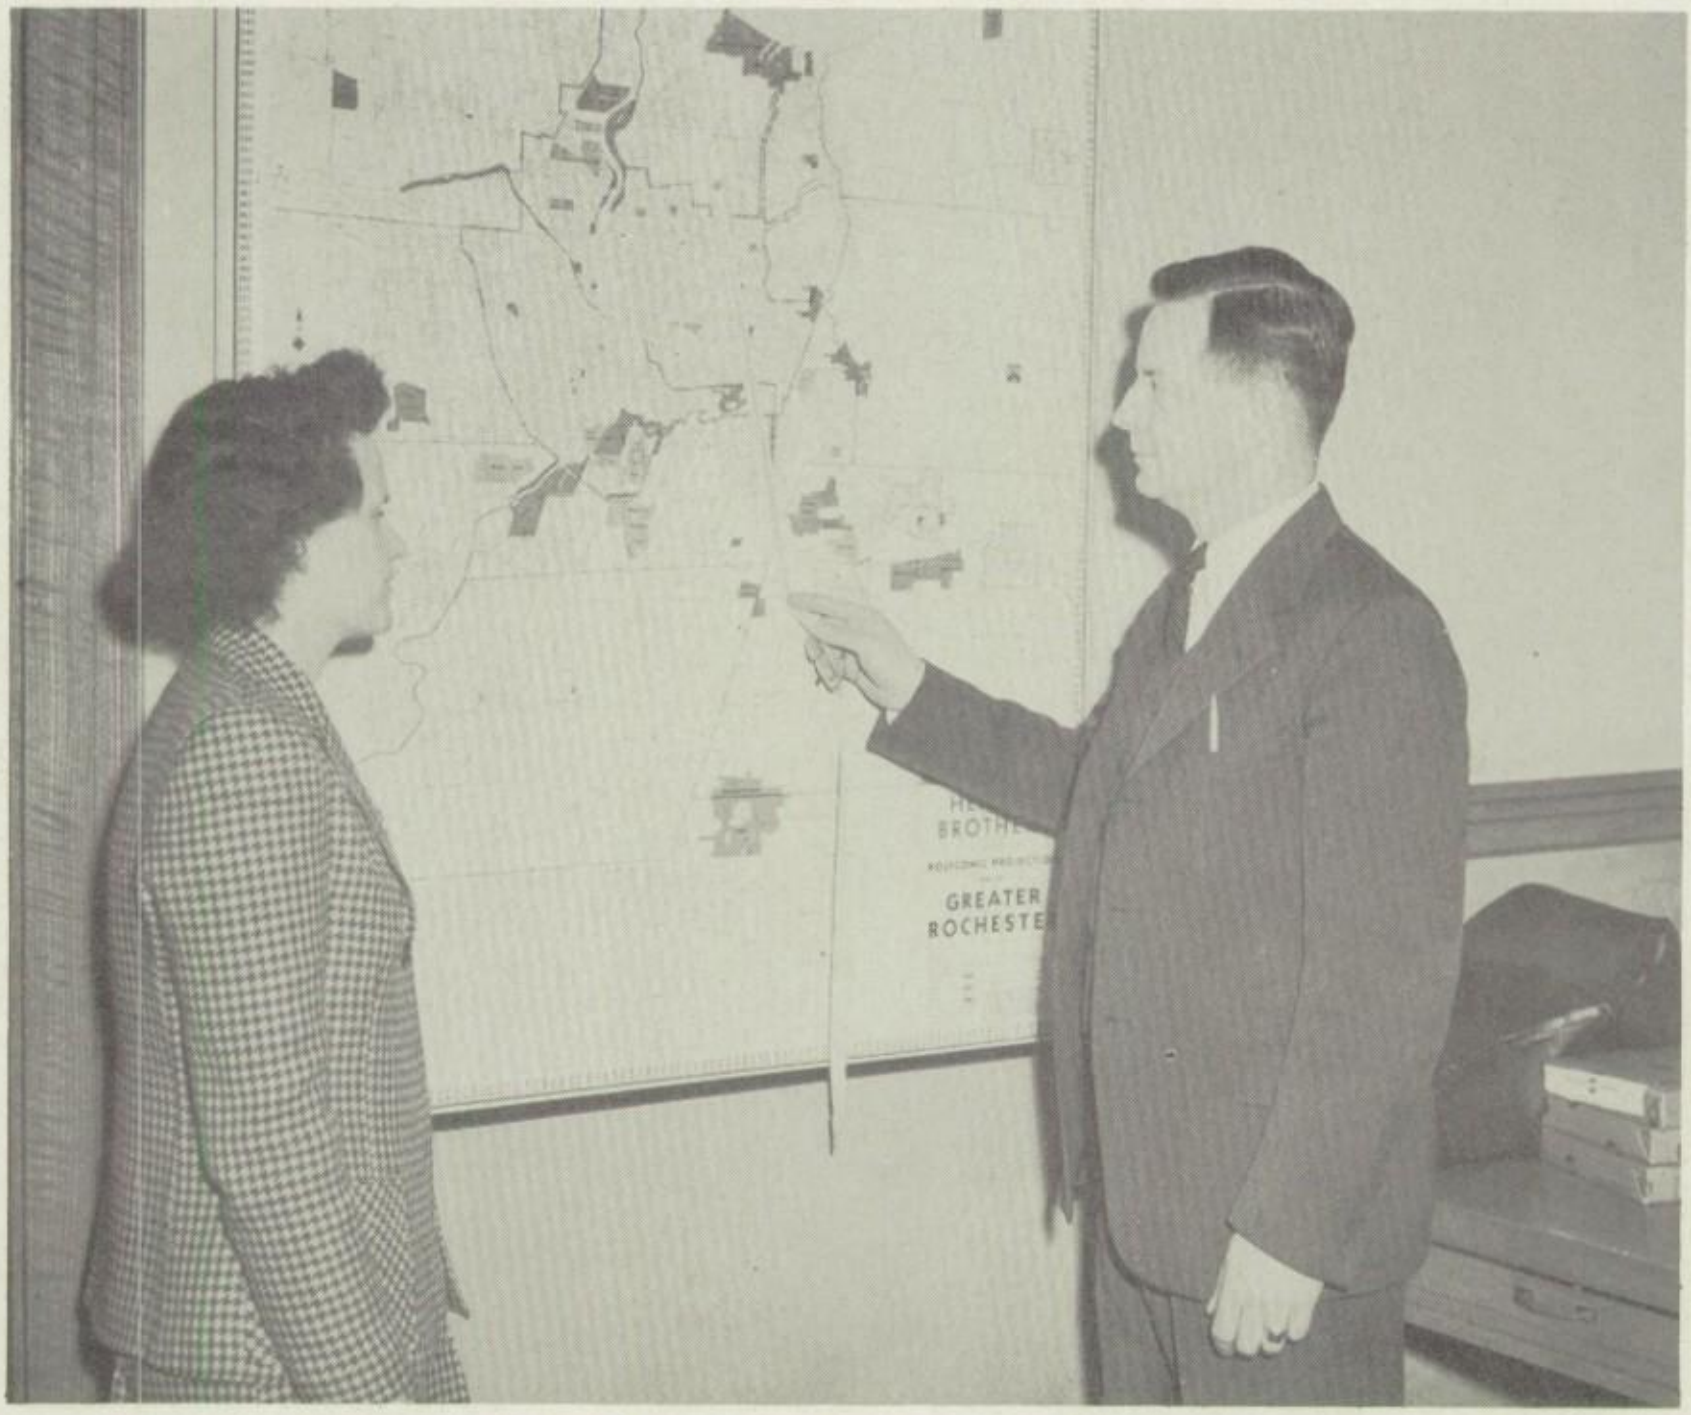
In 1925, Mr. Coffee's new curriculum included the first editions of the School CHATTER and the HOUR GLASS.

Many have profited by his kindly advice and chuckled at his witty anecdotes. Since the war, he has devoted all his spare time to victory gardening on a large scale.

Officiating as a member of the local draft board, taking an active part in the affairs of the Congregational Church, and participating frequently in state-wide educational committee work, Mr. Coffee has won for himself a host of friends.

Technically, Mr. Coffee's job in Fairport is to supervise education in the Fairport schools, but actually his scope of influence is much more far-reaching.

Characters and Minds



PRINCIPAL ANDREW C. LYNCH

For the past ten years Fairport High School has been fortunate to have Mr. Andrew Lynch as its versatile principal. Not only does he run our school efficiently, but he is always willing to listen to student problems and ready with a practical solution.

Participant in social affairs of all sorts, partial organizer of the Melody Nite Nook, war worker in a nearby defense plant, adviser of the Block F, member of the Fairport Rotary Club, and time left over for legislative committee work in New York State Education Department—this is the ambitious program of a very ambitious man.

An excellent speaker, an experienced play director and a skilled make-up artist, Mr. Lynch is constantly called on to make use of his talents. FHS would not be the same without him!

MRS. ULRICH, OFFICE SECRETARY

"A warm smile and a pleasant voice" best describes the school's new and efficient secretary. Keeping the office running smoothly, everyone realizes, takes both skill and hard work. Even by four o'clock, Mrs. Ulrich has not lost her charm or good humor. She has the hearty admiration of teachers and students alike.

Fifth Row — W. Tolhurst, L. Boas, R. Bills, W. Grabb.

—JUNIORS— 1946

Upper classmen—every one—and very proud of it were the fifty smiling Juniors who presented themselves to Mrs. Ryon last fall.

Bob Johnson was elected to wield the gavel at our meetings while Bill Grabb stood by to take over when Johnny wasn't around. Betty Earl took notes and kept the books in order, while Shirley Costello kept our finances on file.

Tomorrow's World

First Row — J. Dovan, J. Piccerelli, S. Costello, M. Rohr, C. Hospers, G. Miller, L. Stolt.
Second Row — H. Spaulding, M. Maloney, B. George, L. Marlett, B. Earl, A. Gaston, M. Brizee, B. Trew.
Third Rok — P. Holmes, P. Coomber, A. Marvin, C. LaRosa, E. Manchester, R. Johnson, T. Adams.
Fourth Row — W. Lewis, D. Woolston, J. Gabrielli.

Mrs. Rought, Mr. Brennan

The Juniors introduced a new dance this year, the "Sock Hop." There were plenty of dirty socks but the dance was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Under Mr. Lynch's and Miss Snow's direction, we staged "Still Shines the Star" written by Miss Snow. This successful production called forth much favorable comment from school and community.

The year ended with our annual Junior Prom.

First Row — E. Lehr, M. Witt, M. Carini, M. Battaglini, L. Malucci, J. Taber, L. Willie.
Second Row — V. Boas, M. Willie, D. Villere, L. Phillips, D. McIntosh, M. Peck, P. Fisk, S. Kier.
Third Row — G. Battaglini, G. Murphy, G. Dryer, P. Dirk, C. Ellsworth, F. Breitbeck, L. Hadley, E. Brickle, A. Williams.
Fourth Row—C. Craig, A. Ashby, L. Boas, D. Winagle, N. Seaman, W. Lewis.
Fifth Row — W. Dancy, D. Snyder, M. Alvut, H. Wacenske, C. Emery, C. Odell, G. Schrader.

Vanished were the awe and the inexperience of those befogged Freshman days. No sir! Here was a new determination to improve in both studies and sports so that the upper classmen would admire the Sophomores.

The class was well-organized under the leadership of Clint Emery, president; Vin Masciangelo, vice president; Norma Zimmer, secretary; and Jean Nemitz, treasurer. Miss Joyce and Mr. Yonkers were their advisers and were present at the very successful Sophomore Dance. Despite much whispering between bells, (and after the bell rang) Miss Stolt, their homeroom teacher, admitted "they're pretty nice" and took pride that the Sophs were among the first to participate in benefit and bond drives.

Self-reliance

First Row — M. Ferris, E. LaPietra, B. Schumacher, G. Pennise, J. Nemitz, D. Filardo, N. Zimmer, V. Granger.
Second Row — E. Sharp, W. Hudson, W. Rhinebold, M. Matz, J. Ferrin, P. Dodge, I. Irrig.
Third Row — F. Bucher, L. Ackerman, B. Graves, B. Bramer, C. Clayton, B. Buholtz, J. Robson, J. Burns, R. Staff.
Fourth Row — H. Konz, R. Young, H. Gardner, D. Morrell, A. Galante, A. Brooks, C. Stolt, D. Jordan.

Miss Joyce, Mr. Yonkers

And no class could be more deservedly proud of heir star basketball players! Tom Brothers, Neil Seaman, Bill Dancy, Clint Emery, Bud O'Dell, and Bob Staff earned the admiration of the entire student body. In football Vinny Masciangelo was always in there fighting. That may be why the Sophs made up a majority of the cheering section, especially with two of the senior cheer-leaders from their class urging them on—Bill Rinebold and Allan Brooks.

No need to worry—the future reputation of Fairport High School is in good hands.

First Row — B. Luttrell, M. Toth, J. Monteith, J. Thompson, S. Fairbanks, A. Basile, D. McMillen, G. Galante, B. Pomponio.
Second Row — J. Bridges, A. Pappert, S. Smith, A. Lewis, M. Marvin, J. Briant, F. Stiner, E. Dryer, L. Sperino.
Third Row—D. Lieb, D. Cole, G. Shibley, E. Woods, C. Kohl, M. Andrews, F. Schumacher, N. Wochner, E. Cook, M. Kleinhenz, L. Verstraete, L. Prober.
Fourth Row — R. Brown, J. Erbland, W. Barnes, E. Frohm, W. Bowman, R. Cole, R. Sternberg, P. Maine, E. Whipple, T. Papa, E. Pybus, D. Beato, H. Prudom, A Reggi, J. Brizee, R. Lewis, H. Johnson.

-FRESHMEN- 1940

If you saw a bewildered and dreamy-eyed freshman walking the halls with a slight "I-don't-know-where-I-am" look, he was not the only one. There were eighty-two others in homerooms seventeen and nineteen. Nevertheless they soon settled down and found their places in classroom and social life.

In scholastics, Dick Lieb, Emmet Pybus and Marilyn Toth led the class; in the sports' field, David Beato, Gene Galante, Alfred Coco and Donald McMillen were most outstanding.

New Horizons

First Row — D. Wilcox, A. Moore, F. Battistone, R. Lazerson, L. Fawcett, V. DeBuck, P. Carini.
Second Row — H. Young, F. Verstraete, Lucy Masciangelo, M. Casella, M. Yost, R. Vance, P. Rice, J. Briggs.
Third Row — L. Ewing, S. Ellsworth, G. Wagner, R. Santini, R. Kosso, B. Hull, L. VanBortle, G. Wilson, J. Mahoney, S. Aldridge, W. Marvin, P. Celehar, L. Peters, Louise Masciangelo.
Fourth Row — N. Grabb, M. Waddell, A. Wacenske, H. Spencer, D. Smith, C. Beato, V. Smith, M. Shults.

Mr. Lynch, Miss Hodge

The class organized early in the year and chose as its president, Jack Brizee; vice-president, Dick Lieb; treasurer, Rodger Vance, and secretary, Shirley Aldridge, with Miss Hodge and Mr. Lynch as advisers. On December 8, the Freshmen sponsored a Variety Dance featuring a sock dance, and other novelty dances. A sum of $23.72 was cleared.

Although the class of '48 may have appeared a bit scatter-brained this year, there is consolation in the fact that the mighty Seniors of '45 at one time were a group of witless freshmen. Who can say what the future holds for these eighty-three?

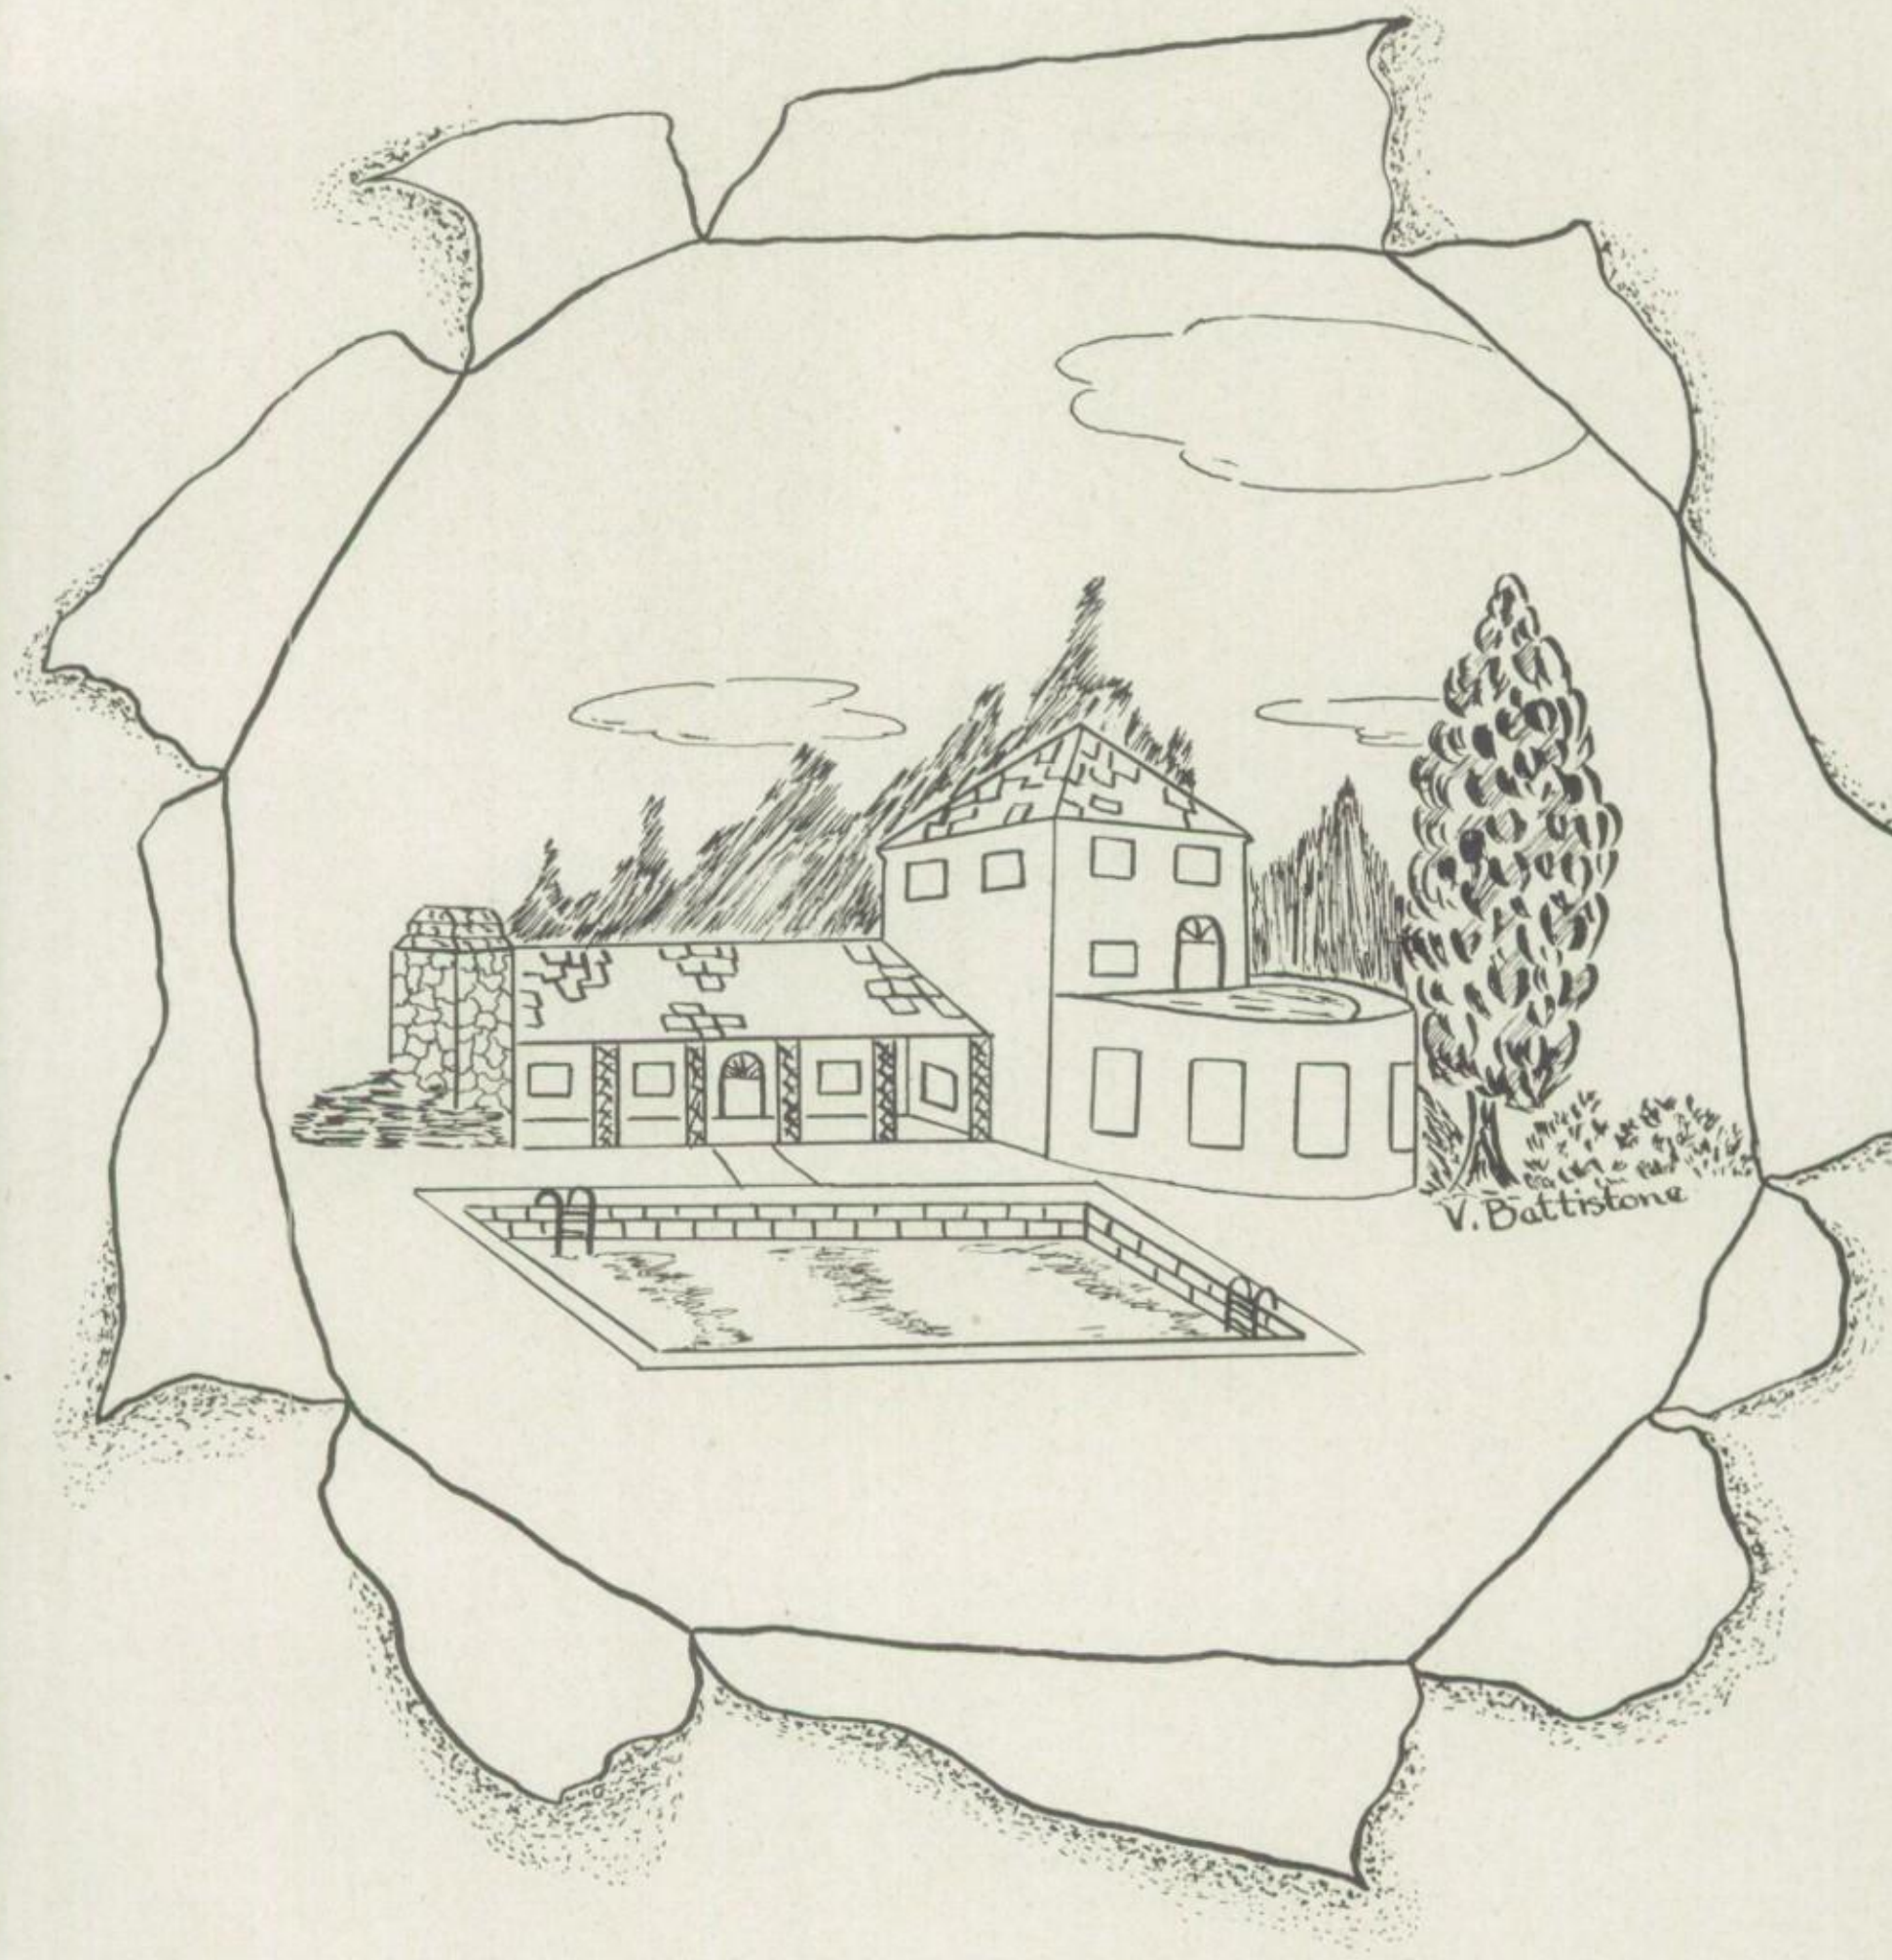
Third Row—R. Caward, M. Beato, A. Villere, D. Masciangelo, V. Battistoni.
Fourth Row—P. Hammond, J. Randolph, C. Pierce, D. Reus, D. Smith.

STUDENT PATROL

"One step at a time, please" — "No running in the halls." Student Patrol members were on the job enforcing order in the halls between classes. Captain Fake, with his imaginary club, blue suit, handcuffs and motorcycle, was the "man behind the men (and women)." He tried to keep peace among students, ranging from the confused Freshmen to the pressed-for-time Seniors. The members were elected in their Junior year and served for two years. Members are proud of their honorary appointments to the Patrol.

STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The Student Association made possible, through the plan of 50 cent dues many of the fine assemblies of the year. Membership .was 100 per cent. They also handled ticket-sales for games and arranged the details of class-day awards. Officers were: president, Philip Hammond; vice - president, David Fake; secretary, Jeanne Hutchinson; treasurer, Ernest Enter.



Friendly Co-operation

First row — Coach Brennan. N. Seaman. V. Battistone. A. Galante.
Second row — D. Fake. R. Koehler. G. Schrader. W. Dancy.
Third row—P. Hammond. D. Jordan. J. Gabrielli. R. Chesbro.
Fourth row—C. Emery. C. Beck. C. Odell.

BLOCK F

Three red bars on a field of royal blue! Those sharp looking sweaters indicate membership in the Block F. Members of this club have participated actively in sports. Each member must have had either two years in one sport or one year each in two sports. Last fall, their adviser, Coach Brennan, was host at a delicious venison supper. In February, Block F put on one of the most popular Tea Dances of the year, featuring a tumbling act. Jim Elliott, President, is assisted by Dave Fake, Vice-president, Bill Dancy, Secretary, and Charles Beck, Treasurer.

ALPHA BETA PHI

Who were the donors of the Scholarship and Sportmanship Cups at Class Day? What club put on those novel tea dances? Who boosted the sale of War Stamps and Bonds in F. H. S.? What organization was the source of all the candy and ice cream? The Alpha Beta Phi. That the "Frat", advised by Mr. Yonkers, was one of the most active clubs in school is evident after a glance at the books which reveal a record profit, the envy of all the other clubs. President Carini, Vice-President Galante, Secretary Stolt, Treasurer Johnson and Sergeant-at-arms Masciangelo piloted the affairs of the club.

First row—R. Lieb. L. Carini. H. Montagliano. V. Battistoni.
Second row — Mr. Yonkers. D. Masciangelo. K. Nemitz. C. Stolt. A. Galante.
Third row — P. Hammond. W. Grabb. C. Barranco. J. Gabrielli. R. Jacobson. R. Johnson.

Good Fellowship

Second row — Mrs. Srteet, J. Bridges, B. Amann, G. Wahl, B. Ellsworth.
Third row — B. Hudson, D. McIntosh, P. Dodge, B. George, S. Costello, M. Peck.
Fourth row — B. Bramer, J. Malone, L. Marlett, P. Titus, D. Villere.

SIGMA CHI DELTA

Purple and white and three mystic symbols- ΣΧΔ ! She belongs to Sigma Chi Delta. Last fall, her sorority was the first to sponsor a dance. After this, came a hayride; then a Night Club Dance, one of the most novel features of the school year. Thus the year passed, with President Joan Prescott, Vice-President Jeanne Malone, Secretary Sally Sweeney, Treasurer Barbara MacDonald and Scribe Joan Welch in charge. Standing by was the sorority's friendly and helpful adviser, Mrs. Street.

SXS

The mystic symbols SXS, proudly displayed on bright green sweaters, identify the wearers as members of the SXS Club. The St. Patrick's Day Dance which they sponsor each year is becoming something of a tradition. They also had a sleigh-ride, a Hallowe'en party, and a Christmas party. This club, the newest in school, was under the direction of Miss Joyce. Its popularity is rapidly increasing. President Norine Kramer officiated at the meetings while Kate Barry, Jean Dryer and Gertrude Miiller were the vice-president, secretary and treasurer, respectively.

First row — G. Miller, N. Brown, D. Filardo, J. Hembrock, B. Babcock.
Second row — Miss Joyce, J. Nemitz, P. Celehar, J. Thompson, M. Ferris, M. Willie.
Third row—R. Spaulding, E. Ferris, J. Wilkins, H. Moore, S. Schrader.

Fifth row — C. Pierce, B. Williams, C. LaRosa, M. Butler, B. Trew, D. Faust.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

"Let's not be 'catty', girls!" "Isn't anyone going to pay her dues?" Such remarks as these frequently drifted out from under the door of the room where the Cos was meeting. These friendly girls, guided by Miss Fortmiller, had a fine record of good-sportsmanship and scholarship of which the school is proud. They won the Scholarship Cup for four years in succession. On April 13, they held their annual Penny Social. President Rose Aparo vainly tried to keep the girls in order long enough to carry onbusiness, Vice-President Betty Schubert stood ready if needed, Secretary Jeanne Hutchinson recorded the minutes of the meetings, and Treasurer Alberta Parkison scooped up the finances.

DRAMATIC CLUB

"Oh! I forgot my lines!" or "Please walk erectly and speak distinctly!" are phrases which could be heard "backstage" or "down-front" as the Dramatic Club rehearsed under the direction of Mrs. Rought. President Bill Grabb and Vice-President Betty Hudson directed the meetings, which Secretary Jeanne Hutchinson and Treasurer Sally Sweeney record. To further their knowledge of the theater world, the Dramatic Club attended plays such as "Harriet" and "Kiss and Tell," and members reported at meetings on recent Broadway plays. Their assembly program on March 22 was one to be remembered.

First row — G. Pernise, H. Murphy, C. Hospers, J. Taber.
Second row — J. Hutchinson, L. Sperino, D. McIntosh, S. Schrader.
Third row — Mrs. Rought, L. Marlett, B. Hudson, H. Voigt, S. Sweeney.

First row — E. Ward, D. Dodge, E. LaPietra.
Second row—G. Pennise, L. Stolt, S. Spencer, M. Battaglini.
Third row — Miss Stolt, L. Reggi, M. Ferris, J. Hutchinson.

FRENCH CLUB

"Passez-woi le beurre, s'il vous plait!" or Ou est la glace?" At the club's annual "grande soirie," anyone who had passed one year of French was permitted to exercise his (sometimes confused) French vocabulary. President Ralph Jennings, Vice-President Jeanne Hutchinson, Secretaries Tom Bucher and Dorothy Dodge and Treasurer Lena Reggi conducted the business affairs of the club. The evenings were spent in trying to improve conversational French and in furthering our knowledge of France. Many of the boys in the service have written home about the advantages a knowledge of French gave them and how much they owed to the Club's adviser, Miss Stolt.

LIBRARY STAFF

"Where can I find information on Lake Louise?" A friendly member of the library staff is quick to offer assistance. Anyone interested in library work receives valuable instruction as a member of the Library Staff. The members of this staff aided Miss Fortmiller in stamping and shelving books, preparing new books and working on the card catalog. These girls gave up two periods a week to work in the library.

Seated—S. Capanna, J. Porreca, N. Zimmer, M. Beato, G. Miiller, B. Hudson, B. Earl, S. Costello, M. Burns, E. Ferris.
Standing — R. Aparo, Miss Fortmiller, A. Villere, L. Sperino, H. Moore, J. Welch.

Fairport High School Chatter

Carl Kishbaugh Sadly Missed

"Killed in Action" — those cold, harsh words have disrupted the happiness in many American homes since December 7, 1941. They have caused of hardship, anxiety and much sadness. Every town and city, regardless of size or number has experienced the bitter sensation of having one of its loved ones killed, missing or wounded. Fairport has been no exception. We have lost some of our most loved and respected students and friends. Recently one of these was reported killed in action in Belgium. This was Carl Kishbaugh, well known as "Kishie."

Kishie was tops in basketball and football and served four years in each. He had a wonderful personality that fairly bristled with pep and fun. His smile also was famous. Kishie could always be seen with a big smile even when the going got really tough. In the midst of a hard game, Kishie and his smile were the greatest morale builders ever know. The students, teachers and people of Fairport will never forget — Carl Kishbaugh.

Senior of the Week

This week the "Chatter" is proud to present Dorothy Dodate for Senior of the Week. "Dottie," who is for her outstanding has a record this year taken physics and same year and were as follows: Chemistry, 98; Int. Algebra, 95. IV, 93; Int. Algebra, 95. Accomplished in the field of music, "Dottie" is accompanist for the Girls' Glee Club, plays the oboe in the school band and has taken piano at the Eastman School of Music. She is also in Scouts and in Delta.

Her ambition is to be a nurse and her Senior Project is on Penicillin and Quinine. The "Chatter" congratulates "Dottie" on her high scholastic standing and is proud to have her Senior of the Week.

Rings Are Ordered

That a happy day last Wednesday for the Juniors. They ordered their Junior rings.

Fairport High Defeats Spencerport In Close Tussle

A reformed Fairport quint came out on top in a thrill-packed duel last Friday at Spencerport. The contest, which see-sawed back and forth throughout the entire game, went into the books as a 24-23 decision in favor of Fairport.

Fairport-Perinton Youth Recreation Council Formed

Two representatives, one adult and one youth from each of the Fairport Churches, were appointed to the Executive Committee of the newly formed Fairport-Perinton Youth Council, at a meeting held at the First Baptist Church on Monday, February 26. This youth group and their sponsors are planning to open a teen-age center in the Lodge of the Potter Memorial in the near future to help fill the recreational needs of the youth of Fairport and Perinton.

"I'm sorry, Linda, but I just couldn't get this story in any sooner." Type this story, please, and be sure to have it in before 3:15 on Friday." Yes—Editor-in-chief Linda Stolt and her staff of assistants had many headaches while working feverishly to make the School Chatter headlines. Bob Johnson wrote some very laudable feature stories while Betty George did most of the proof-reading and Bill Grabb was the sports writer. The School Chatter is always the major project of the Junior Class and is now celebrating its twentieth year of publication. After writing four successful stories a student may become a reporter and after ten stories, a reporter becomes an editor.

Band Receives Regents Rating

Notice has been received from Albany that the High School Band has been placed on the roll of those musical organizations receiving Regents credit. Band members complying with the requirements for this credit receive Regents credit equal to any other prepared subject — one-half point a year, for two recitations weekly.

Fairport pupils responded enthusiastically to the call for support for the American Red Cross. Mindful of the loyal alumni in the service the student body was anxious to be a part in furnishing aid to the wounded, or the Red Cross comforts to the boys and girls in the many parts of the world. Many became dollar members in memory of those who had lost their lives.

Forty pupils in the Junior High became members from that department ... memberships with total contribution of $196.70, West Church Street pupils contributed $82.09 and East Avenue School $19.64, making total contributions from Fairport school pupils $311.76.

Pledges Do Stunts, —And Dishes

After the tryouts which have been held during the past week, the Dramatic Club chose the pledges to their club. They are as follows: Philip Hammond, Shirley Schrader, Dale Harris, Louise Sperino, Betty Earl, Helen Voigt, Bud O'dell and Grace Pennise.

These pledges were initiated at a meeting of the Dramatic Club last Thursday at the high school. Ways of raising money were discussed, and it was decided to raise the dues to twenty cents and use the extra money to see a play in Rochester.

FOOTBALL

Although no great success was achieved on the gridiron by the Fairport boys, there existed a spirit among the players and students that has seldom been equaled in any year at Fairport.

Mr. Brennan, the new coach, was met by a fine turnout of enthusiastic, if not experienced, players. Coach Brennan displayed a vast knowledge of football tactics and plays and handled the team with superb patience and understanding. Although the team won no games during the season, the opposing players knew that they had been obliged to fight for their victories. The boys showed an enviable spirit throughout the season.

The Red and Blue in '45

The fortunes of the court warriors of Fairport underwent a turn for the better during the '44-'45 season.

Under the tutelage of Coach Brennan, the boys developed into a smooth-functioning team, chalking up 4 wins and 8 losses in the county league.

The offensive strength of the Red and Blue cagers was realized in Neil Seaman and Tom Brothers. Tommy in one game topped the 20-point mark, scoring 22 points and nearing a county record. He was named to the All-County second team. Neil often topped 10 points per game and gave ample aid to Brothers. Captain Phil Hammond was a tower of strength under the boards and seldom missed a rebound. The rest of the team gave loyal support. The season ended with Fairport holding an 8-9 won-lost record.

Fight, Team! Fight

"Come on Red! Come on Blue!" With this cheer the 1945 squad of cheerleaders spurred the teams on to greater efforts on the football field and the basketball court.

Joan Prescott was captain of the cheerleaders and proved worthy of the position. At regular practices each Wednesday noon, the cheerleaders met with Miss Donk, the adviser, to plan pep meetings and originate stunts and cheers.

Fairport High School has an age-old reputation for its school spirit and splendid sportsmanship. It is such a group as this that helps to keep our traditions alive.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

"A team for every girl and every girl on a team," is the motto for the Girls' Athletic Association. On entering high school, every girl automatically becomes a member.

At the beginning of this year officers were elected. It is a tradition that the president and general manager must be seniors, the treasurer, a junior, the vice-president a sophomore, and the secretary a freshman. Officers were elected by popular vote and sports managers were chosen to complete the council of the G. A. A. Officers this year were: president, Mary Beato; treasurer, Betty Hudson; vice-president, Lucy Malucci; secretary, Barbara Hull; general manager, Alberta Parkison; adviser, Miss Donk.

The main purpose of the G. A. A. is to arouse interest in sports and to further understanding and participation. The G. A. A. contributes money toward new equipment and toward the athletic awards made at the end of the year.

FIELD HOCKEY HONOR TEAM

Something new was added to the list of girls' sports this year. It is a game called field hockey. The girls had never played hockey before, but they all co-operated with Miss Donk while she explained the game. Everyone enjoyed the new sport and is looking forward to another year of it. At the end of the season an Honor Team was chosen.

BASKETBALL HONOR TEAM

At the end of the basketball season six girls were chosen by fellow-participants to make up the Basketball Honor Team. Honor Team qualifications are: good sportsmanship, co-operation, and excellent playing ability. Every girl aspires to membership. Each year the members of the Honor Team have their names engraved on a bronze plaque which hangs in Miss Donk's office. Being a member of the Honor Team is one of the greatest honors a girl can achieve.

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

Besides participating in sports activities in weekly gym classes, the girls also had a chance to display their athletic ability in sports activities after school. Among these sports were basketball, baseball, soccer, ping pong, badminton, volley ball and hockey. Tumbling, archery, hiking, and riding were included as minor sports. Each girl was entitled to participate in as many as she chose.

DRUM MAJORETTES

FHS BAND

Under the direction of Mr. Vance, more students in F. H. S. came to a realization of their musical ability. This is one of the oldest and most popular organizations in the school.

Throughout the year they furnished the music for many assemblies, putting forth special effort for the Senior Play, Spring Concert and Commencement. Their music brings pleasure to all. Their repertoire included stirring marches, overtures, and other selections.

First row—L. Malucci, C. Hospers, H. Murphy, D. Dodge, A. Moore, H. Young.
Second row — P. Dodge, B. Luttrell, A. Pappert, S. Smith, P. Fisk.
Third row — M. Marvin, J. Porreca, J. Welch, B. Buholtz, M. Peck, G. Shibley, B. George.
Fourth row — L. Phillips, S. Aldridge, B. Graves, S. Kier, P. Brizee.
Fifth row — C. Pierce, B. Williams, E. Woods, B. Prinzivalli, H. Faust.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB

"Wasn't that caroling by the Girls' Glee Club at the Christmas Assembly beautiful?" "I'm looking forward to the Cantata presented by the girls at the Annual Spring Concert!" The Girls' Glee Club, under the leadership of Mr. Carroll Vance, was indeed a very talented group. Twice a year they presented concerts—first in an assembly and later at the Spring Concert, accompanied by Dorothy Dodge. For the past five years they have sung at the Baccalaureate Services. No other organization has provided more real pleasure throughout the year than the Girls' Glee Club.

Appreciation of Music

MIXED CHORUS

"Let's try the tenors and the basses separately! That harmony was just right, but the altos should bring out their part." The Mixed Chorus, directed by Miss Genevieve Watson, was a group of both boys and girls whose voices blended harmoniously as they sang many of the old favorites.

At an assembly they presented two selections, accompanied by Gail Wilson: "God Bless Our Boys in War," a tribute to our fighting men, and "A Song of Peace" with a violin obligato by Miss Snow.

First row—G. Wilson, S. Johnston, J. Briggs.
Second row — Miss Watson, B. Hull, M. Matz, H. Faust.
Third row — W. Lewis, B. Earl, R. Kittle.
Fourth row — R. Young, J. Erbland, A. Brooks, D. Harris.

Third row — H. Ashby, D. Smith, W. Lewis, P. Holmes, C. Emery.

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

"Sit erect and breath deeply, boys" — "Now build up that crescendo and then decrescendo softly." Such was the Boys' Glee Club at work under the able direction of Miss Genevieve Watson and accompanied by Jeanne Hutchinson. Their repertoire was diversified and their music in assembly an inspiration.

SENIOR MEDITATIONS

UNKNOWN

War is hell, or so they say,
But I should know — I died today.

I fought at Remagen and Guadalcanal —
They don't need to tell me that was is hell.

I died in the foxholes of Bataan;
I fell in Iwo Jima's sand.

They raised a cross above my head
"Unknown Soldier" was all it said.

James Randolph, '45

TO A GOB

I know a sailor boy named Paul;
He's very handsome, sweet and tall.
He loves to dance and so do I,
That must be why I like the guy.

When he came home the other day,
He had about six months' back pay;
We didn't sit at home, you see,
We "did the town," my gob and me.

Now, when this war is through and won
There's going to be a lot of fun,
'Cause when that sailor gets back home,
He'll have no other chance to roam.

Elsie Ferris, '45

PEACE

Over this world a sleep will fall,
And with the dawn a peace will come;
Homeward we'll march, friend and foe.
Some of us will not return —
Peace to us came at an earlier time.

Peace is a sweet but costly thing
Not just time, and money wasted,
But lives—thousands of lives,
Lives that might have been rich and full
Had they not been sacrificed
For peace.

Dorothy Faust, '45

A SAILOR BOY

Today he struts along the street,
Proud in his navy blue;
Tomorrow who knows what he may meet
Along with the rest of his crew?

In three more months he'll be nineteen,
"Almost an old man now";
But who can say how the years between
Will treat his unlined brow?

We put our trust in lads like him,
Proud and brave and true,—
And who can doubt that his courage and vim
Will see the whole thing through?

Hail Lowell High.
Hail, name of Lowell, name we revere,
Loudly thy glory we proclaim far and near;
Thy sons and daughters in loyalty vie,
Hail Lowell High School, all hail Lowell High!
Hail to thy colors, emblems we love,
Long may thy banners wave proudly above;
Thy wondrous spirit never shall die,
Hail Lowell High School, all hail Lowell High!
LEVIN.

THE LOWELL HYMN

I

With heads bared we stand in tribute to thee,
Our Alma Mater Lowell, all true to thee we'll be.
Unfurled, Red and White, none shall thee decry,
Thy name we love—oh, Lowell High!

II

The battle is o'er and Lowell hearts true,
In victory or defeat will their faith in thee renew.
With hearts full we sing, thy sons, ne'er will fail.
Thy name we love, hail, Lowell, hail!

ALMA MATER

R. Anino

Hail, Lowell High School—All hail to thee!
Our undying loyalty will bring thee victory.
We love thy banner Red and White, symbol of our might,
Hail, Lowell High School, Alma Mater, hail to thee!
Alma Mater, hail to thee, all hail!

ON CARDINAL

On—on—Cardinals!
Fight for victory today, team.
Colors red and white,
Proudly wave to you from up on high,
Courage, Lowell hearts,
Down the foeman in the fray, team,
And when the battle's won,
We'll cheer for Lowell High.

LOWELL FIGHT SONG

R. Anino

I

Fight, Lowell High!
(Clap three times)
Go, Lowell High!
(Clap three times)
Lowell's spirit will not yield
Give us the ball and watch us
Go right down the field.
Fight, Lowell High!
(Clap three times)
Go all the way!
(Clap three times)
Score, score, score, and score some more,
And help to make this a Lowell Vict'ry Day!

II

(Clap three times) (yell) Let's go!
(Clap three times) (yell) Let's go!
Lowell spirit will not yield,
Give us the ball then watch us
Go right down the field.
(Clap three times) (yell) Let's go!
(Clap three times) (yell) Let's go!
Score, score, score and score some more
And help to make this a Lowell Vict'ry Day!

PEP SONG

R. Anino

Rah-Rah-Rah-Rah!
Spell Lowell! Yell Lowell!
L-O-W-E-L-L (slowly)
L-O-W-E-L-L spells Lowell (faster)
L--O-W-E-L-L spells Lowell
Lowell High—Lowell High.
Fight, fight, fight—Red and White,
Fight for the Red and White—
Rah!

HICK SONG

R. Anino

I

We're glad to play a game today,
And we will do our best in ev'ry way.
As long as we are in it we are going to try to win it—
A better spirit you will never see.
And ev'ry time we score we'll cheer.
For that's the very reason we are here.
And when we get behind our team, as we will always be—
We'll go home with a victory.

II

(yell) One, two, three, four—we want a score!
(band) X X X X X
(yell) One, two, three, four—we want more!
(band) X X X X X
(band) X X X X X (yell) Rah!
(band) X X X X X (yell) Rah! Rah!
(sing) And when we get behind our team, as we will always be—
We'll go home with a victory!
(band) X X (yell) LOWELL HI!!

HAIL, RED AND WHITE

(Official song in '20's and early '30's)

Hail, Red and White
May you conquer left and right
With banners high
Our team will do or die.
Listen to our yell—
May you hear it ev'rywhere.
So get behind it, Lowell High, and make it rend the air!

ALL FOR LOWELL

R. Anino

We're all for Lowell High School
And we will help to cheer her on to victory.
We're all for Lowell High School
No one will have a chance to doubt our loyalty.
We'll sing for Alma Mater
And let the whole world listen to our battle cry.
We'll hoist her banner to the sky
The Red and White will ever fly
Hurrah, hurrah, hurrah for Lowell High!

EEE-RAH

Eee—rah, rah
Ooo—rah, rah
L-O-W-E-L-L
Lowell—Lowell High.

LOCOMOTIVE YELL

Rah, Rah, Rah-Rah-Rah, Ooo
Rah, Rah, Rah-Rah-Rah, Ooo
Rah, Rah, Rah-Rah-Rah, Ooo
L-O-W-E-L--L
Go get 'em, Indians—
Fight, Fight, Fight!

WHISPERING CARDINAL

C-A, C-A, C-A-R-D,
I-N, I-N, I-N-A-L,
C-A-R-D-I--N-A-L,
C-A-R-D-I--N-A-L,
CARDINAL LOWELL HIGH.
(soft the first time, loud second)

THE AXE YELL

Give 'em the axe, the axe, the axe,
Give 'em the axe, the axe, the axe,
Give 'em the axe, give 'em the axe,
Give 'em the axe, where?—
Right in the neck, the neck, the neck,
Right in the neck, the neck, the neck,
Right in the neck, right in the neck,
Right in the neck, there—
(repeat, but faster)

CLAP YELL

It's L, it's L, it's L-O-W,
(clap, clap, clap-clap-clap)
It's E, it's E, it's E-L-L
(clap, clap, clap-clap-clap)
It's L-O-W (clap-clap-clap)
It's E-L-L (clap-clap-clap)
It's Lowell, it's Lowell,
Fight, fight, fight!

ROCKET YELL

(clap, clap, clap-clap-clap)
(clap, clap, clap-clap-clap)
(clap, clap, clap-clap-clap)
(whistle)———(yell) BOOM!
L-O-W-E-L--L
Lowell—Lowell—Lowell!

FIGHT 'EM

Fight 'em, Red,
Fight 'em, White,
Fight 'em, Indians—
Fight, fight, fight!
Fight 'em, Red,
Fight 'em, White,
Fight 'em Indians,
Fight—fight—fight!
(repeat twice, each time louder)

VIVE LE LOWELL HIGH

(Music: "Vive l'Amour")

Well, here's to our colors, the Red and the White,
Here's to our teams that shall never say die,
With memories golden, more cherished with age,
So we'll keep up the fight 'till the victory's won.
Vive le Lowell High!

May they always succeed in portraying their might,
To pals that a fellow can always stand by;
To stand out forever among records made,
The worst of the fray is the best of the fun.
Vive le Lowell High!

Chorus
Vive le, vive le Lowell High;
Vive le, vive le Lowell High;
Vive le Red, vive le White,
Vive le Lowell High.

ALMA MATER

Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
The hills send back the cry, you've got to do or die,
For Alma Mater, Alma Mater,
We'll win the game or know the reason why!
Sing the first time.
Whistle the second time.
Sing it the third time.

THE STURDY TEAM

Our sturdy gridders true,
Are waiting for the fray,
And look upon our colors fair,
For they are out to win the day;
Our banners red and white,
The symbol of our might,
Means Lowell High will fight, fight, fight,
So give a cheer for Lowell's Braves
We'll send them on their way
With our mighty cheers today,
For they are out to win the game
And bring to Lowell name and fame.
So cheer with all your might,
As it will help them fight,
For Lowell stands for Might and Fight,
So give a cheer for Lowell's Braves

ZOWIE LOWELL HIGH

Zowie Lowell High
Wowie Lowell High,
San Fran rockety fran
Cis, co rockety co,
Lowell
Lowell High.

Lowell High Students

FALL STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

With President Jim Nolan as leader of the student body officers, the fall term was very successful.

Serving as vice president was Carol Melmon. Joelle Rosen took care of all the secretarial duties, while the person in charge of the financial situation was Bob Minney.

Head Cheer Leader Paul Matzger helped to keep up Lowell's fine spirit. Marilyn Levy, editor of The Lowell, kept all teachers and students informed with the latest news around school.

Gwen Davis, editor of the Red and White, and her excellent staff started working on the centennial yearbook.

SPRING STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

The student body officers led by President Bob Moore made an active spring 1956 term. Assisting Bob as vice president was the very capable Sylvia Nelson.

Secretary Terry Yasukochi took care of all minutes and corresponding matters. Paul Matzger, treasurer, took care of all money matters.

Head Yell Leader Tony Mathios had the entire student body behind him while he led every yell.

Gathering all the latest news for The Lowell was Editor Sue Figel.

Re-elected editor of the Red and White was Gwen Davis.

The Executive Board

The Executive Board is the general governing body of all student activities. The board makes and executes the laws of the school. It also puts into effect the provisions of the Lowell Constitution.

This term's Executive Board, led by Bob Moore, did a fine and capable job of organizing school activities. Assisting him was the student body vice president, Sylvia Nelson.

The board met once a week to discuss any affairs which were brought to their attention. Taking part in each meeting were the officers of the school. This included Treasurer Paul Matzger, Head Yell Leader Tony Mathios, the editors of the Red and White and The Lowell, Gwen Davis and Sue Figel, Terry Stevens, president of the Scroll and L, and the president of the Shield and L, Barbara Bates.

Also composing the board were the president of the Boys' Block L, Bob Oddone; the president of the Girls' Block L, Carolyn Watson; president of the Girls' Athletic Association, Dorothy Jones; chairman of the Student Council, Brian Lyttle; Joanne Davies, president of the California Scholarship Federation; and the commanding officer of the ROTC, Peter Belmont.

Terry Yasukochi, secretary of the student body, took minutes and kept a record of all business.

The Executive Board appointed the members of the rally and social committees and helped assist the principal in setting the dates for general school assemblies. Maintaining the morale and promoting the welfare of the school was another of their accomplishments.

Advising the board on different matters were Principal J. A. Perino, Dean of Girls Miss Lorigan, Dean of Boys Dr. Smith, and Activities Sponsor Mr. Anino.

Big Brothers

Before this term, the Big Brothers consisted of senior boys only. Now, boys of the junior class are being recommended in order to give them a sense of responsibility. They are selected for their good scholarship, reliability and service to Lowell. Scroll members are automatically ex-officio members.

The most important function of the Big Brothers is to acquaint the new boys with Lowell. A warm smile, helping hand, and a little friendly advice make it a lot easier for the bewildered newcomer. In both the fall and spring terms they assisted in putting on the highly successful Newcomers' Reception.

The fall Big Brothers were headed by President A Johnson and Terry Stephens, secretary-treasurer. The sponsored an intramural basketball tournament. track meet was held in the spring. The officers wer Jim Weinberger, president; Kit Cole, vice president and Harold Hand, secretary-treasurer.

Also, in the spring, they co-sponsored the Twir Dance with the Big Sisters, held on Friday, April 1

Mr. Milton is the sponsor of this group whose othe duties are to keep order at the rallies and the oute doors.

Big Sisters

Miss Alice Graeber, one of Lowell's active counselors, has been the sponsor of the Big Sister Society for the past three years. This dependable organization consists of upper division girls who attempt to get new girls acquainted with Lowell.

The Big Sisters of the fall term elected Gail Jacobs, chairman; Noreen Sibell as her assistant; Sylvia Nelson, secretary; Carolyn Perkins, as co-ordinator; social chairman, Audrey Witt; and Carolyn Watson as chairman of the special activities committee.

The capable officers of the spring semester were president, Carolyn Perkins; vice president, Joyce Richards; Cathie Covington, secretary; Gerry Giovanetti, co-ordinator; social chairman, Charlotte Lee; and Helen Wolf as chairman of the special activities committee.

In the fall a Big Sister-Little Sister party was given to acquaint the newcomers with their Big Sisters. Another event which took place on December 3, in the Lowell auditorium was a fashion show where some Big Sisters modeled the latest fashions.

Among the various events given during the spring semester was a luncheon and tea for the incoming girls, planned by the Big Sisters.

The group has organized a morning study session for both Big and Little Sisters, welcoming all girls who wish to study in the morning.

Helping to make the fall term a successful one were President Al Clark, Vice President Phil Sevier, Secretary Ken Balling, and Sergeant-at-Arms Larry Draper.

During the spring term the Block L also had a fine set of leaders. The very capable Bob Oddone acted as president. Assisting him were "Doc" Brody, vice president; "Bucky" Reed, secretary; and Josh Eppinger, sergeant-at-arms.

The Boys' Block L forms an important part of the school's activities. The traditional Block L dances, co sponsored with the Girls' Block L, are the best know of these. Major social events were their two dances thi year. In this, the Centennial year, the Boys' Block are revising their constitution. Due to their hard work the clean-up campaign was a huge success. They als assist the school in outside activities.

Mr. Neff is the sponsor of this outstanding group

Reliability, hard work in the sports in which the participate, and a desire to win, all add up to th achievement of athletic success for boys at Lowell, an their ultimate goal—a Block L.

Girls' Block L

The Girls' Block L is a very active organization round Lowell. A girl must participate in a sport for hree years before she is eligible to receive her block, herefore, these girls wear their blocks proudly.

Th program was a very active one under the leadership of fall President Dixie Samuels, assisted by Secretary Anita Washington.

The Girls' Block L joined with the Boys' Block L nd presented the traditional Block L Dance on October 29 in the girls' gym.

Other highlights of the fall term's activities included a roller skating party as well as the semi-annual Block L Banquet which was held at DiMaggio's Restaurant. Everyone had a terrific time.

The spring term meant new officers. The Block L girls chose Carolyn Watson as their president and Nancy Norton as their secretary. Under the leadership of these new officers many activities were planned.

The activities of the spring term included the traditional Block L Dance on March 23 in the girls' gym with the help of the Boys' Block L. The semi-annual banquet also meant a lot to these girls.

Miss Flynn, their advisor, helped in many ways to make this year a success!

SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

Music is a major part in the lives of many students at Lowell. The orchestra is under the direction of Mr. Krieger, who is the head of the music department.

Each year the orchestra plays for the Varieties, and many times ensembles perform for PTA meetings, rallies, the Newcomers' Reception, and other school activities.

Such musicians as Sally Ann Hough, Dave Rosen, Nancy Wood, Alan Johnson, and Russ Cantor had the distinction of performing solos.

Representing Lowell in the Festival of Music at Stockton were a group of instrumentalists from the orchestra.

THE BAND

The Lowell band, under the guidance of Mr. Krieger, is known as one of the best high school bands in the city. Student Conductor Alan Johnson was director in the fall term, and in the spring term Armand Schwartz took over the baton.

Not only does the band play at all the rallies and games, but it puts on band concerts in the auditorium. Among the talented musicians were several outstanding soloists.

College of the Pacific in Stockton was the scene of the Festival of Music held on February 4. A group of instrumentalists from the band attended to represent Lowell in this big affair.

ADVANCED CHOIR

Lowell's advanced choir director, Mr. S. Berry, t tired with the ending of the fall term. After being Lowell for so many years his choir students were sor to see him go.

Mr. Bernard who came from Balboa took over M
Berry's position as choir director.

On December 13 the choir sang at The Emporiu
and also appeared in the 1955 Varieties. A group
14 went to the Festival of Music in Stockton and re resented Lowell in a huge chorus, directed by the w known Roger Wagner.

One of Lowell's traditions is the choir singing graduation. It is an experience long remembered both graduates and choir members.

ROTC

ROTC REGIMENTAL STAFF
Charles Andrews, Peter Belmont, David Rosen

Under the capable supervision of Sergeant First Class John Potts, the Lowell battalion has successfully completed another banner term this spring 1956.

The commander of the unit, Major Robert Dawson, made sure that the fine traditions and upholdings of Lowell's ROTC remained steadfast for another eventful semester. Adjutant Kenneth Jenkins was also a valuable help in the many activities that once again proved that Lowell has some of the most precisioned soldiers of any San Francisco high school.

Company commanders for the spring were Captai John Richter of A Company, Captain Carl Berry of Company, and Captain Danial Buttolph of C Com pany.

The entire battalion received high honors for its ex cellent showing in the St. Patrick's Day Parade an received many favorable comments for the many othe drills and marches which they exhibited with ease an skill.

The Lowell

San Francisco's oldest high school newspaper, The Lowell, had a very successful year. Under the capable editors, Marilyn Levy in the fall term, and Sue Figel in the spring term, the paper continued the traditional items as well as adding many new and interesting features.

Assisting Marilyn as associate editor was Carole Morrison. Bob Lom was the sports editor in the fall term and the page editors were Emery Ottey, Suzy Lindner and Sue Figel.

Bruce Cohn, the associate editor, assisted Sue along with Jon Tolson as sports editor and Sharon Deming, Joni Horowitz and Phyllis Gurvitz as page editors.

This bi-monthly paper was founded in 1898 and all through the past 58 years it has kept abreast with the times.

RED AND WHITE STAFF — FALL

Row one: Barbara Texiera, Arnell Shows, Gwen Davis, Anita Washington, Carole Gold, Judy Rosenthal.
Row two: Mr. Buckley, Sue Barnard, Yvonne Dandy, Roz Perry, Joyce Richards, David Green.

Both the fall and spring Red and White staffs have worked very diligently this past term. Since this year is Lowell's centennial, the editor and her associates decided to bring you this 100-year book commemorating Lowell's past.

This yearbook is the largest book any high school has ever produced and the members of the staff are very proud of it. We hope that you readers will appreciate all of our endeavors and be as boastful of it as we are.

Gwen Davis was the editor of both the fall and spring terms and her associate for the fall term was Rosslyn Perry and in the spring Barbara Texiera. Besides her job as editor, Gwen performed all of the art work in this yearbook.

Carole Gold and Joan Mendelson took care of the financial end of the yearbook, while Anita Washington and Yvonne Dandy made up the senior section. The activities editors were Joyce Richards and Barbara Texiera and the copy editor was Judy Nakamoto.

Covering the sports in the fall was Bob Stewart and in the spring Richard Soward was the very capable sports editor.

Junior Red Cross

One of the most active Junior Red Cross chapters in San Francisco is the Lowell chapter. They participate in many worthwhile activities on local, national, and world-wide levels.

They make tray favors, wall hangings, and nut and candy cups to give to the San Francisco hospitals for all the holidays. Entertainment is provided for the hospitals. Wall hangings are made for the USO groups in San Francisco.

On the national level, their activities include sending hogan kits to the Navajos and contributing articles to the National Journal of the Junior Red Cross. Money is collected each March in the annual membership drive to the Red Cross.

Better relationships are developed when the Junior Red Cross sends scrap books and gifts to schools abroad. Illustrated class work is sent to the Eskimos and samples of art work and tape-recorded music is sent to foreign schools.

The leaders of this energetic group in the fall of '55 were Charles McClure, president; Diane Sachs, vice president; Joan Tuhtan, secretary; and Norma Ivelich, treasurer.

Judy Levetin is president this spring with Joan Tuhtan assisting her as vice president. Mary Ann Lee is secretary and Norma Ivelich is treasurer.

NATIONAL RED CROSS

Picture taken at the Pacific Area Office of the American National Red Cross which was the former Lowell site. Seated on a bench which commemorates the former Boys' High School and Lowell High School is Mr. J. D. Zellerbach, a Lowell graduate and a member of the National Board of Governors. Standing are Charles McClure, present chairman of the Junior Red Cross Council of Lowell, and Kyra Oppermann, former chairman of the Junior Red Cross of Lowell and of the San Francisco Junior Red Cross City-Wide Committee; she is now chairman of the Junior Red Cross College Activities for the University of California, Berkeley Chapter.

Bank of America Awards

BANK OF AMERICA

Row one: S. Vause, J. Burton, J. Davies, P. Belmont. Row two: J. Kiil, D. Rosen, M. Gospe.

BANK OF AMERICA AWARDS

The basic purpose of the Achievement Awards Pro-ram is to stimulate and encourage high school stu-ents in their academic, vocational and citizenship aining.

Six thousand Awards consisting of certificates, ophy cups, ribbons and $44,900 in cash awards was resented in the spring of this year to outstanding niors in recognition of scholastic attainment and rticipation in school and community activities.

The Final Selection Committee is composed of ven outstanding citizens, representative of the area nder the chairmanship of a prominent educator who esn't vote.

The seven judges interview the finalists in a group d determine the amount of award each finalist will ceive at the Achievement Day Dinner Program, Friday, May 18, 1956, in Sacramento, in the Empire Room of the Senator Hotel.

The three students from Lowell who were zone finalists were Peter Belmont, first place in Science and Mathematics; Joan Burton, first place in Liberal Arts; and, David Rosen, second place in Fine Arts.

CLOTHING DRIVE

A clothing drive was held in January to help victims of the flood. Miss Lorigan initiated the drive by placing a notice in the bulletin for unused clothes to donate to the Soroptimist drive for relief to flood victims. The results surpassed all expectations and the drive continued for over a week.

The clothes went to Klamath, the Russian River, and Sacramento. Later, Miss Lorigan received a letter of appreciation from the Soroptimists stating that the donations were gratefully received.

During this year the Forensic Society has contributed much educational stimulus to Lowell—ranging from the pure speech forms to public discussions of controversial subjects.

The backbone of the forensic year is the tournaments held by schools throughout California, in which competitive speaking is carried on. Events on the agenda usually include debate, extemporaneous and impromptu speaking, oratory, and presentations of dramatic and humorous declamations, and oratorical speeches.

Besides the tournaments, many outside organizations hold speech contests; included is the Chinese Lions Club, in which Mary Ann Lee took first place; the Native Sons, in which Bill Goldman took second; and the American Legion, in which Mike Axelrad placed third.

Lowell High is a member of several national and local speech associations, the most important of the is the National Forensic League (N.F.L.), a nation honor society of speech students, in which membersh must be earned. Also, Lowell is a charter member the Northern California High School Speech Ass ciation (N.C.H.S.S.A.), which is the sponsoring bo for the Northern California tournaments. The thi organization is the San Francisco Forensic Associatio comprised of the San Francisco public and paroch schools.

This year's president is Bill Goldman, who aut matically is president of the Lowell Chapter of t N.F.L. and the N.C.H.S.S.A. Bill is also president the S.F.F.A. Besides Bill, fall officers were Jud Biskind, vice-president; Tondi Cummings, secreta and Vince Fernandez, treasurer. The spring offic were the same for president and treasurer, with Mi Axelrad, vice-president; and Mary Ann Lee, secreta

Wins Many Honors

Since the retirement of Mr. George Lorbeer, veteran coach, the sponsor and advisor has been Mr. Jack Anderson.

The most important of the aspects concerning the Forensic Society are the wide variety of programs it sponsors. For instance, earlier this year the society sent the Lowell delegation to the regional meeting of the Conference of Christians and Jews, and, just recently, sent three delegations representing countries to the Model United Nations atthe University of California. The program of the Forensic Society is both enjoyable and educational.

In the field of awards, Lowell has always been a winner—this year's honors included the debate championship at Stanford, won by Bill Goldman and Arne Werchick, the "Sweepstakes" award for the top school at the Lincoln High School Tournament, best school at the Model U.N. at the University of California, only Northern California high school invited to the University of Southern California invitational tournament, fourth place in extemp at State finals, and many others.

Presently there are forty members training and participating, twenty-five who regularly compete in statewide competition. Lowell can claim not only many of the best speakers in California, but the largest extracurricular speech association in California. Some of the top speakers this year were Bill Goldman, Arne Werchick, Mike Axelrad, Mary Ann Lee, and Vince Fernandez. Others who competed regularly were Joey Mindlin, Ken Bley, Bonnie Goldman, Mary Wade, Brenda Gilman, Valerie Dong, Diane Sachs, Leonard Snider, Mike Rucka, Charles McClure, Steve Jacobs, Steve Hone, Tondi Cummings, Judie Biskind, Stan Jackson, Phil Crosby, Alan Lerch, Alan May, and Chucky Breyer.

The Lowell Forensic Society is open to any student, providing an abundance of enjoyment, and also educational opportunity.

PTA Fashion Show

SENIOR GIRLS MODEL AT PTA FASHION SHOW

Twelve high senior girls participated in a dessert-luncheon and fashion show sponsored by the PTA on November 29, 1955. The girls modeled styles of the past 100 years in the fashion show, "Then and Now." Clothes of years gone by, which were loaned to the models by grandparents and great-grandparents, were contrasted to the present styles which were the models' own clothes.

The girls were divided into various categories, each portraying a different period of time and different fashions. Groups ranged from Civil War days to the Miss Lowellite of the future.

The money raised at this dessert-luncheon was to be used by the PTA for its Lowell fund. This proved to be a very successful affair because it allowed Lowellites to be of assistance to the PTA which, in turn, was able to raise money to help the school.

The Science Fair

LOWELL HIGH SCHOOL ENTRIES IN THE SCIENCE FAIR AT GOLDEN GATE PARK.

The six Lowell students who entered the annual San Francisco Bay Area Science Fair held at the California Academy of Sciences in Golden Gate Park were, bottom row: Jim Lawrey, who showed a new method of mounting crustaceans without formalin solution, and Terry Trosper, whose exhibit was effects of bleach on hair.

Not pictured is Paul Bonaccorci, who showed his radio-controlled boat. Top row: Jack Luce's exhibit was vitamins and man. Ames Swartsfager's exhibit was on the volume of sound and measurement. David Rytand showed some snakes and told some facts about snakes.

Varieties and Progress Parade

Once again, under the expert direction of Mr. Polland, the Winter Varieties were a tremendous success. The Varieties were given on November 18, 21, and 23 to sell-out crowds.

The outstanding skits included "The One Woman In The World," "Adventure," "The Great White Sale," "On The Lot," "The Municipal Davenport," "The Lion Tamer," "Caught In The Act," and "Buying A Hat."

The cast included William Hearne, Tom Caylor, Pat Jacobi, Judy Freed, Bob Dawson, Dick Anderson, Ross Shoaf, Barbara Baker, Lenore Kay, Arnell Shows, Mike Larson, Robert Rowe, Joelle Rosen, Sue Warner, Charles Breyer, and Jackie Edelstein. They all did a terrific job.

Mr. Krieger's fine orchestra played selections including "Fiddle-Faddle" and "Sandpaper Ballet." The Lowell choir under the able direction of Mr. Berry sang a fine selection of Christmas carols.

Solos were presented by Carol Aizenberg, Robert Hall, Mary Stallings, Lillian Gardner, Raymond Cauwet, Carol Leeds, Myrna Molinar, Russ Cantor. Other numbers included Armand Schwartz, Neil Pace, John Marks, Sally Hough, Manny Goldman, Eddie Jackson, Richard Price, Jackie Edelstein, Margaret Barton, Lea Malfanti, Diane Doyle, and Diane Sachs.

A few senior boys presented a dance directed by Miss Mensing entitled "Morning." They were Peter Belmont, Jim Nolan, Kevin Harrington, Guy Erb, Al Johnson, Al Clark, Jim Weinberger, John Debenham, Al Katsuyama, Tom Caylor, Terry Stephens, and Jeff Benninger.

The Lowellettes: Carol Aizenberg, Audrey Bocek, Anita Washington, Jane Vargo, Donna Taylor, Sue Warner, Lee Labe, Karen Guthertz, and Elaine Klein, also did two numbers for the show.

The finale was composed of the Big Sisters and Big Brothers who presented a very delightful skit entitled "Going Home For Christmas." It was composed and directed by Mr. Anino.

Lowell played an important part in the Festival of Progress parade, which took place on Sunday, April 22 along Market Street. The purpose of the parade was to show the regrowth of San Francisco since the earthquake and fire of 1906.

Lowell contributed the largest unit in the parade. The float was effectively done, showing the need for a new school. The float was made of 15,000 crepe flowers. A red brick schoolhouse was on top with several Lowell students. The float was also publicizing the centennial year of the school.

In the lead car of the Lowell unit were the student body officers, followed by the oldest alumnus and youngest present student. They were Samuel Sonnenberg, 93 years old, from the class of 1880, and David Lindt, 13 years old, class of 1959.

Then came the color guard along with the ROTC drill team. Following them were the drum majorettes marching in front of the song leaders.

The band and drum corps came next. They proceeded an 1856 surrey, and two 1906 tandem bicycles. To show the difference in times, a 1926 car with students dressed in appropriate clothes for that time and a 1956 car in which the senior class officers were paraded. The float ended Lowell's entry in the parade.

Lowellites were pleased when the judging was announced and the float took second prize, $250, drawing more attention to the centennial year.

Much credit is due to Oxana Rudenko who drew the preliminary designs of the float and also to Mr. James Livingstone, who was in charge of the committee.

The float coast $200 and was built and paid for by money from student activities, and donations from students. In all, there were over 500 students and teachers who actively participated in preparing for the parade.

Lowell is proud of the work they did.

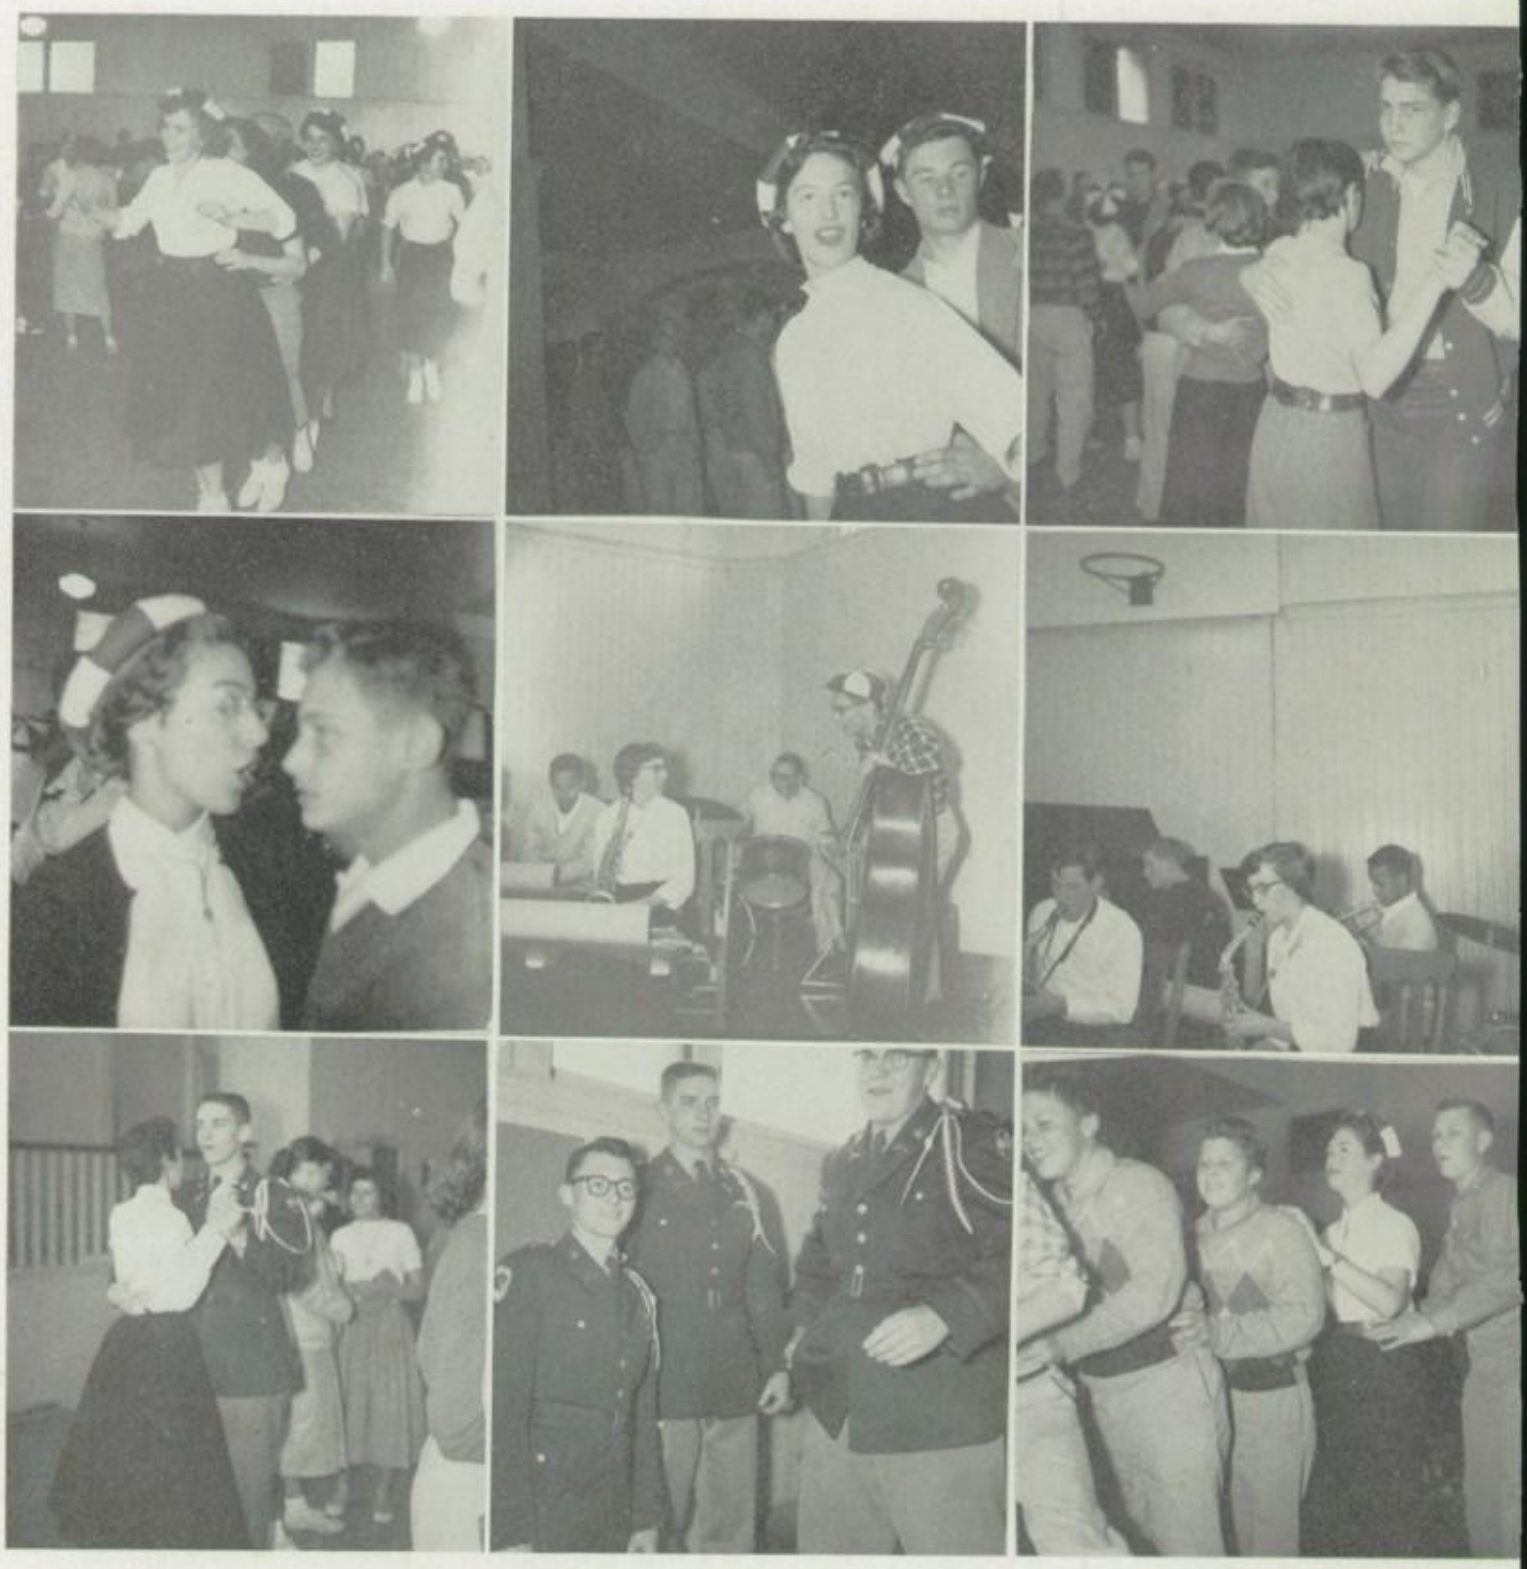
Newcomers' Reception



NEWCOMER'S RECEPTION

Row one: Shield girl Sally Ann Hough leading the Bunny Hop. Roberta Spivock and Terry Stephens joining in on the dance. Big Brother Fred Becker dancing with a newcomer girl. Row two: Shield girl Joan Burton dancing with a newcomer boy. Band leader Armand Schwartz giving his band members a few instructions. The band in action playing one of its best numbers. Row three: An ROTC officer dancing with newcomer Mimi Frazer. Three ROTC officers resting after dancing the Bunny Hop. Shield girl Sondra Snow taking part in the Bunny Hop dance with newcomer boys.

The spring Newcomers' Reception presented by the Shield and L and Scroll and L introduced many new Lowellites to their classmates and the traditions of Lowell. Barbara Bates, acting as Shield chief, and Terry Stephens as Scroll chief, directed the program. The entire production revolved around an Indian theme. With Richard Price and his guitar, the audience was led in group singing. Comic dances and a pantomime followed. A high spot of the program was a "fashion" show by the Shield members, which featured clothes worn from the first days of Lowell in 1856 until the present, 1956.

The program was followed by a get-together in the Armory. With the aid of a terrific quartette from the Lowell band, a lively jam session was in progress when the bell rang ending an exciting day for many new students.

Busy Term for Rally

SPRING DANCE COMMITTEE

Row one: R. Janigian, S. Bates, J. Driscoll, S. Nelson, R. Guggenhime. Row two: T. Patch, B. Moore.

FALL DANCE COMMITTEE

Under the sponsorship of Miss Dealtry the fall dance committee planned three successful dances, which included "The Foot-Ball," "Gone Fishin'," and "Frosty's Frolic." The members planned the themes, the interesting tallies, and the eye-catching decorations.

The members of the fall dance committee included Carol Melmon, Penny Black, Audrey Bocek, Pete Carr, Pat Clark, Diana DeMun, Suzan Ferroggiaro, John Kiil, Mike Kuhn, Idele Levy, Mike Mattson, Larry Miller, Jim Nolan, Marty Pyle, Joyce Richards, Audrey Schwartz, Ross Shoaf, Roberta Spivock, Pete Williams, and Thom Yasukochi.

The cooperation between the members is an essential part of the dance committee and through their helpful and eager efforts all the dances were a great success and enjoyed by everyone.

RALLIES

Rallies this term were better than ever. Under the leadership of Mr. Anino, who returned from Europe after a leave of absence of one year, the rallies were planned by the student body officers and the rally committee.

The members of the committee consists of Brenda Enmeier, Ross Shoaf, Shirley Hong, Kit Cole, Sylvia Nelson, Mimi Marx, Rhoda Cohn, Dan Nolan, Marilyn Braverman, Mike Axelrad, and Chuck Breyer.

The spirit at the rallies was up to the usual high standards, and during the term, at one of the big game rallies, Lowell was visited by Ketty Frierson, from the Purple Onion, who sang several numbers.

This term's cheer leaders introduced their new centennial sweaters and also new yells. The most popular yell was titled "Charlie's Indian." At the S.I. game a new type rooting section was organized. Everybody wore white and the students were arranged in rows according to their class.

Certainly the 1956 cheer leaders and rally committee did an outstanding job.

STUDENT BODY DANCE COMMITTEE

The Student Body Dance Committee of the past term had a busy schedule planning the great school dances. Under the able direction of Mr. Anino, the faculty sponsor, and Sylvia Nelson, committee chairman, the dance committee worked their utmost to make the dances successful.

A new plan was tried for the first time at Lowell. Each dance was sponsored by the dance committee and a school club. Some of the organizations that sponsored the dances during the spring term were the CSF, Block L, Big Sisters and Big Brothers, and the Low 12 activities committee.

The members of the dance committee were Bob Moore, Sylvia Nelson, Janice Driscoll, Russ Janigian, Tony Patch, Rich Guggenhime, Nan Krutchkoff, and Susie Bates.

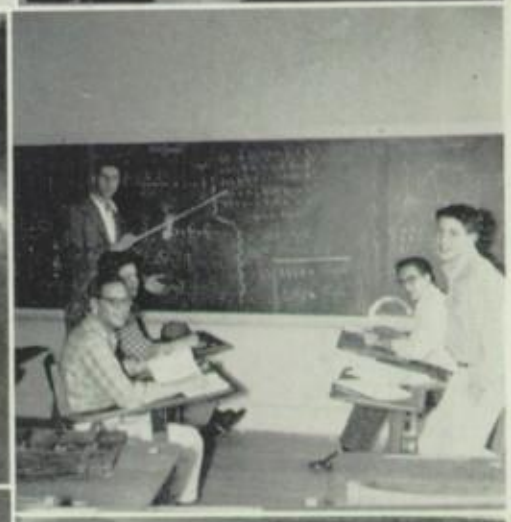
School Is a Busy Place



Students Gain Work Experience By Helping Out in Offices

The offices at Lowell are very active places. Many students work in them instead of taking a study period.

The attendance office workers, under the direction of Mrs. Cahen, make up and take around the attendance bulletin, check reasons for students' absence, and mimeograph various notices.

The main office is always the scene of much activity. Miss Harrison and her staff of three students per period are kept busy filing, answering telephones, delivering messages and working the newly installed switchboard.

Room 142, the counseling office, is headed by Mrs. Goldsmith and Mr. Karpenstein who use a staff of students to help them keep up the permanent record file and various other jobs.

Dr. Smith's and Miss Lorigan's office also make use of many students who aid them in discharging such duties as answering telephones, greeting visitors, and maintaining files.

Students who work in Mrs. Kendall's office learn how to operate the mimeograph machine and the duplicator. The daily bulletins and special notices are run off in the office.

The girls gym department uses two girls each period to lock up the dressing rooms, give out balls and play the phonograph for folk dancers. Many students work in the library each period checking out books, shelving, and keeping the library in good order. The bookroom also takes some students each period to give out books, load and unload new shipments and various other tasks.

Students like to work in the various offices because they feel that, along with helping to keep the daily routine operating smoothly, they are getting experience in office management.

Curriculum

The general curriculum at Lowell High School consists mainly of courses which will prepare students for college. Lowell sends about 90 per cent of its graduates on to college each term.

For a century Lowell students have had the advantages of fine educational and social programs. When entering Lowell as a freshman, each pupil is given a counselor to guide and advise him through his four years. Mr. Henry Karpenstein heads the counseling department and under him are assistant counselors and grade counselors who are always willing to give a helping hand.

Lowell's English department, headed by Mr. Samuel Polland, offers six courses in English, which are required for graduation, and eight electives.

Miss Aurelia Osuna heads the foreign language department. Four years of work is offered in each of the four languages.

At the head of the social studies department is Mr. Ray Milton. This department offers nine fields of study.

The mathematics department is headed by Mr. Ivan Barker. Seven fields of study are offered by this department.

The science department, headed by Miss Dealtry, makes available an excellent choice of interesting courses. The courses offered are chemistry, biology, physics, and physiology.

All students must take four years of physical education or boys may take ROTC. The physical education department is headed by Miss Dorothy Flynn and Mr. Ben Neff.

Although Lowell is an academic high school, it also offers one year of shorthand and one year of typewriting. Lowell's curriculum also includes courses in art and music.

ORAL ENGLISH CLASS
Oral English is a very popular course offered at Lowell. Here we see Mr. Pollands class enjoying a speech.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

There are many courses offered at Lowell in the field of English. Included are English I through VI, dramatics, journalism, oral English, advanced composition, contemporary literature, prose fiction, and poetry.

English I to IV deal with grammar, the first phases of composition, and an introduction to literature.

English V has the corresponding name of American literature, since it deals mostly with American authors and their writings.

English VI has the corresponding name of English literature and it deals mostly with English authors and their works.

Oral English is the study of how to compose speeches and how to present them to audiences.

Advanced composition prepares the student to take college board examinations and also to write and organize compositions.

All these courses give the students a good foundation in English and prepare them for their college careers.

SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT

The social studies department of Lowell is composed of several sections, with Mr. Raymond Milton as head of the department.

Social studies is devoted to a study of Europe, Asia, and the peoples of the Pacific. World history reveals a study of the world from prehistoric times up through the ages. United States history begins with the European background of our nation and continues through the various phases of American development up to the present. Senior civics entails a study in the American government and the problems of a growing democracy. Economic geography is a study of economic resources and world trade, with particular emphasis on the United States. Economics is an outline of economic principles designed to build a vocabulary of economic terms. California history includes the Spanish period of dominancy and the early days of American occupancy up to the present time. English history begins with pre-historic Britain and continues up to the present day.

The student drivers are Zeeva Zaretsky, Lynn Vlautin, and Frances Ludlow.
Panel Discussion in Mr. Fast's class included Anita Axt, Steve Dimond, Lorelle Cohn, John Hare.

BIOLOGY CLASSES

There are many interested biology students at Lowell. Left: Roberta Roth. Right: Natalie Gooch, Paula Beavin and Topper Kelley.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT

The foreign language department head is Miss A. M. Osuna. Its purpose is to enable students to learn the use of a foreign language.

The languages taught here at Lowell include French, German, Latin, and Spanish. Each language offers eight semesters of instruction.

The first two years of any of the languages is devoted mostly to vocabulary, grammar, and the correct use of words. The remaining two years emphasize the fluent use and understanding of the language.

In the spring there is usually a language contest, which the students may enter. This gives the students an opportunity to actually use the language and to gain experience.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT

In the field of science at Lowell there are four courses offered. These courses are biology, chemistry, physics, and physiology. They are all taught as college preparatory courses.

Biology is the study of plant and animal life. The students inspect different articles in the animal and vegetable worlds.

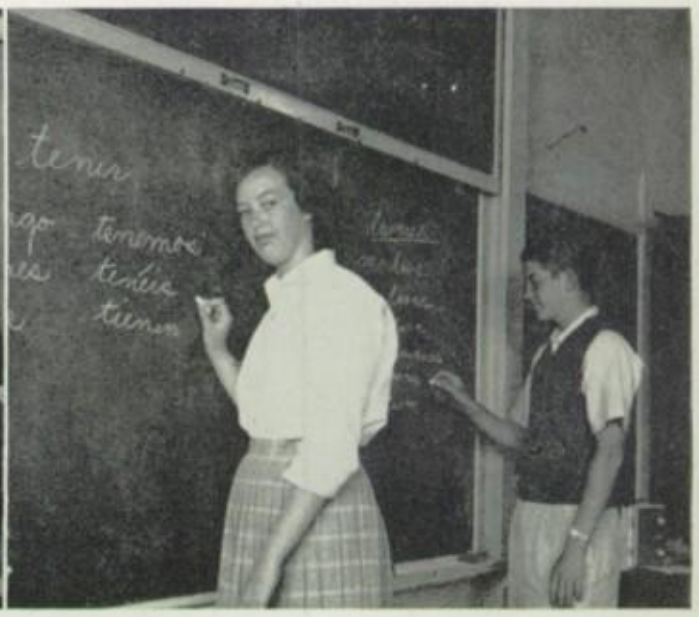
Chemistry is taught as a laboratory science. The students conduct their own experiments, plus occasional demonstrations by the teacher.

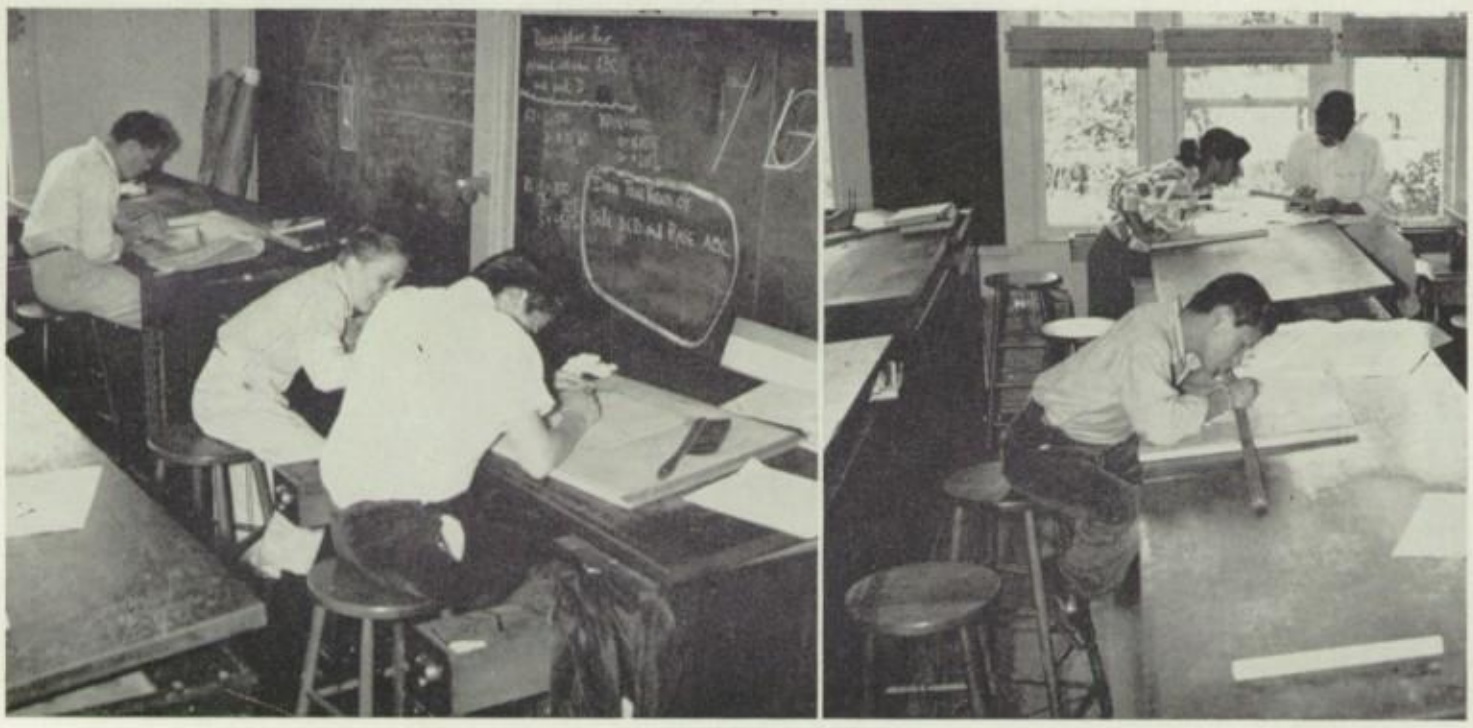
Physics is the study of energy. The students conduct experiments with different electrical devices. This course includes some phases of atomic energy.

Physiology is the study of human anatomy. The students study the complete anatomy of the human being.

SPANISH CLASS

Members of Mr. Anino's Spanish class study the history of Spain and Latin America, along with their language lessons.





Students at work in Mr. McCord's mechanical drawing class.

MECHANICAL DRAWING

Mr. O. H. McCord, head of the mechanical drawing department, has helped many students interested in drawing or engineering prepare for college.

To pass this course a pupil must have a knowledge of correct lettering and be able to draw many views of one subject.

Among the tools required are a T-square used in place of a ruler, a scale for measuring inches accurately, a forty-five degree angle, a thirty-sixty degree angle, a light, fine pointed pencil and eraser, and finally, a darker lead pencil used to darken plates, making it complete and ready for correction.

After completing this subject, a student should have a thorough knowledge of equal dimensions and how to draw any objects.

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

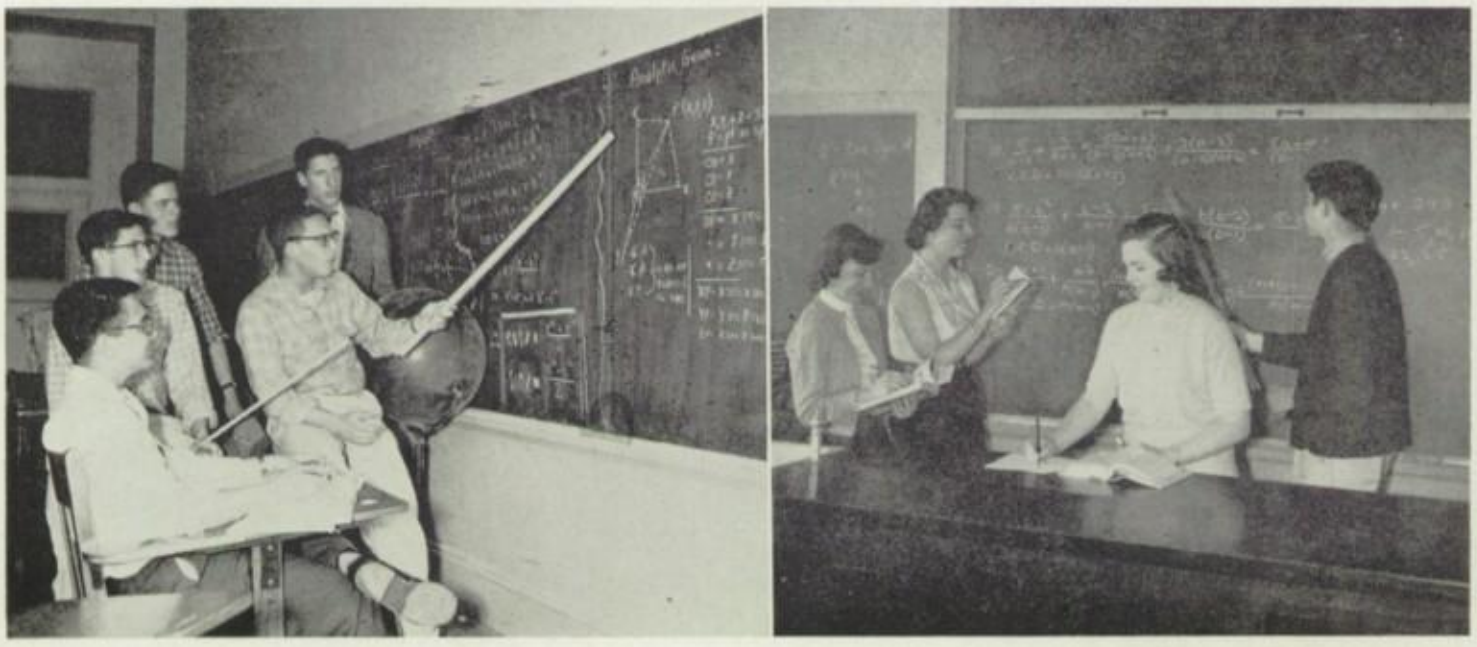
Under the direction of Mr. Barker, Lowell's mathematics department works hard to prepare students to meet college requirements in mathematics. The department is large because two-thirds of Lowell's students are enrolled in math courses.

The courses offered are general math, algebra, geometry, advanced algebra II, descriptive geometry, solid geometry, calculus, and a math seminar which was just instituted this year.

Lowell has had some very fine math students. They have taken four first awards since 1951 in the Bank of America awards and seven honorable mentions in the Westinghouse Talent Search contest. Students who are eligible may also take the Stanford competitive math exam and Math Association of America test.

First scene: A seminar mathematics class. Students working to solve a difficult problem.

Second scene: Students working algebra problems.



CRAFT CLASS
Seen working in a craft class are Oxana Rudenko, Gerry Rankin, Sharon Lax, John Hare.

ART DEPARTMENT

Lowell's art department offers students a well organized art curriculum. The available courses include drawing, crafts, design, costume design, commercial art, and advanced art.

For students interested in watercolor, sketching, and oil painting, drawing and advanced art are useful in helping them to create various types of techniques.

In design, students acquire the knowledge of complimentary colors and its use in the organization of designs. Textiles and ceramics are offered to students taking crafts, which teaches them skilled craftsmanship.

Girls interested in designing clothes will find that costume design trains them to study different fashions of dress design. Commercial art students devote much of their time to making posters. Brush lettering still is required in this course to produce an effective poster.

Each art course is creative and imaginative, enabling students to produce individualistic work.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

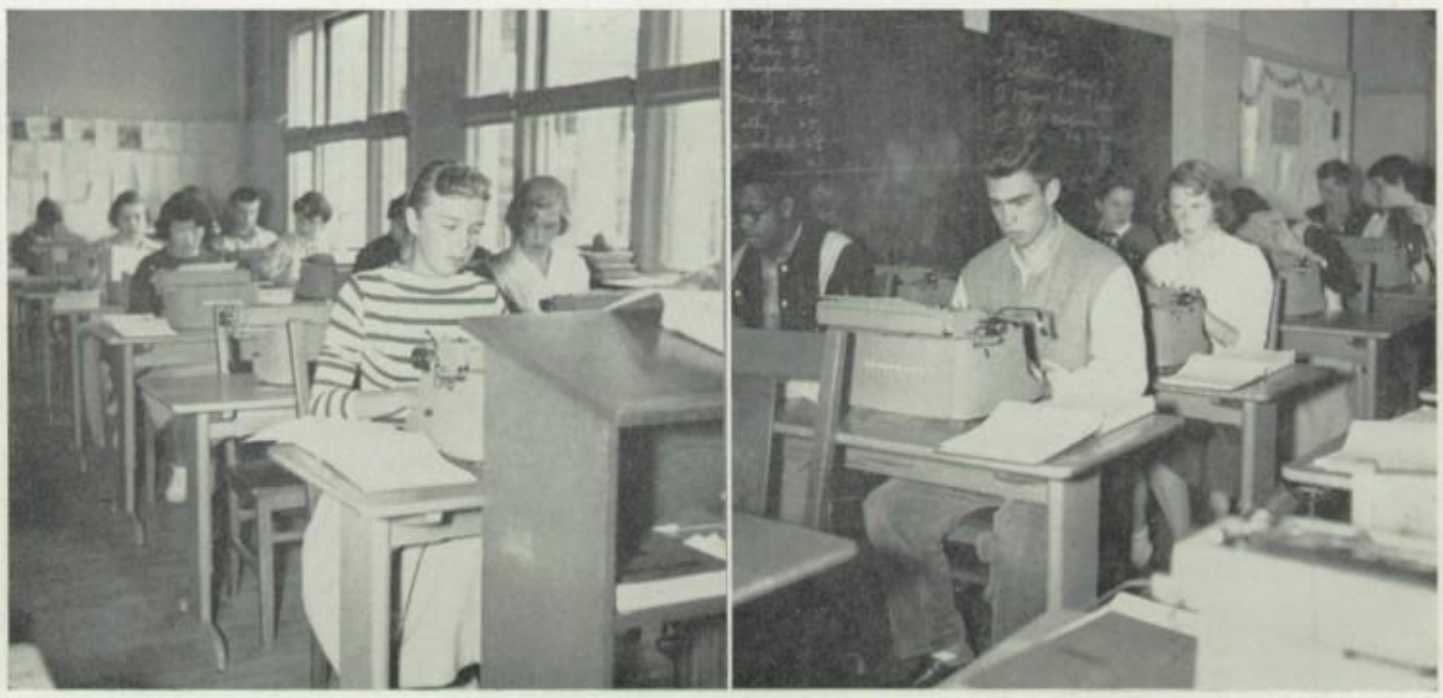
The business department at Lowell High School offers one year of typing and one year of shorthand. The skill obtained in these courses is helpful to all students, whether they plan to go into the business world or on to college after graduation.

Typing enables students to prepare assignments neatly and rapidly. Proficiency tests are given to typing students and are recorded for reference if employers wish to know the ability of a future employee.

Shorthand helps students with spelling and is useful in taking notes. This course offers a good foundation for those who intend to go on to secretarial school after they graduate from high school.

Both these courses have given students enough knowledge in shorthand and typing that many have obtained part-time jobs while going to school. This helps not only financially, but also helps young people to learn something of the business world while getting their education.

TYPING II CLASS
Seen in a typing II class are Carol Heaney, Alice Tong, Cynthia Nickelson, Ronny Hormiez, Pat Rile, Linda Yatabe, Diane Petersen, Frank Buckley, Tim Curtis, Judy Edgeman, Donna Sarin, Sally O'Connell, Armeka Jackson, Shirley Ramsey, Michael Rogerson.



MR. KRIEGER CONDUCTS HIS INSTRUMENTAL CLASS.

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

From eight o'clock in the morning to the end of sixth period, Mr. Krieger's music department instructs students in playing musical instruments. The classes taught are beginning instruments, intermediate instruments, advanced band, and orchestra. Students interested in singing may take beginning, intermediate, and advanced choir.

The band and orchestra play for many occasions—football and basketball games, parades and graduations, term plays, and the varieties to name a few. The choir also sings for graduation, in addition to numerous concerts, this year including one at The Emporium.

A big event every year is the Music Festival. Students form ensembles, quartets, and duets to be rated by judges. Dave Rosen, a music major, took second place in the Bank of America awards in the field of fine arts.

PE AND ROTC

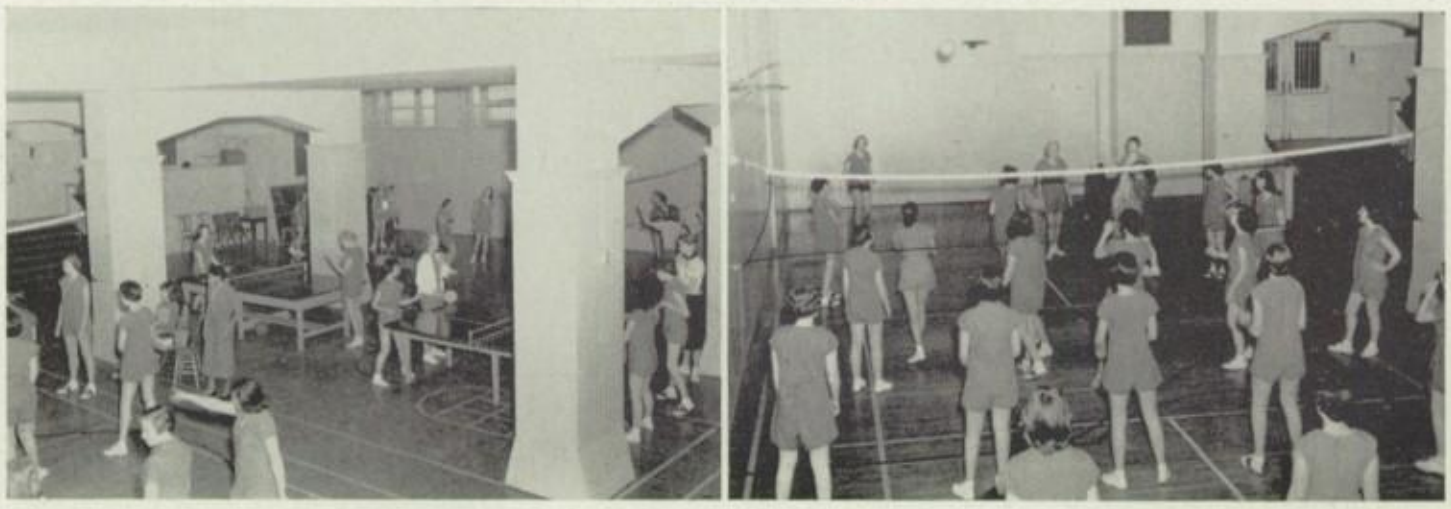
The physical education department is a very important part of Lowell's curriculum. Every girl in Lowell is required to take PE for the full four years. The boys are given a choice of taking either ROTC or PE, but they also are required to participate for four years.

The girls' physical education department is headed by Miss D. Flynn. The PE sports offered to the girls include volleyball, ping-pong, kickball, softball, and folk dancing. Once a week the girls are required to have hygiene.

The boys' PE department is under the direction of Mr. Ben Neff. The boys taking PE may enter in interclass or inter-school team competition.

The ROTC, another department of Lowell's curriculum, is supervised by Sergeant First Class John Potts.

THE GIRLS' GYM IS A CROWDED, ACTIVE PLACE.



Girls' Athletic Association

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association, better known as the GAA, offers all girls an opportunity to participate in nine different sports. The sports are under the capable sponsorship of the gym teachers. By joining this organization, the girls are able to make new friends and are able to keep their healthy figures.

If the girls take a sport for three years they become members of the Block L. After four years or eight terms of taking sports, the girls in their high senior year are awarded the highest award one can obtain in the GAA—the gold L pin.

Bowling meets every Monday and Wednesday under the sponsorship of Mrs. Smith. Also on Wednesdays, volleyball and basketball or softball meet under Miss Flynn's guidance. The girls who participate in horseback riding get together every Tuesday and Thursday with their sponsor, Miss Sink. Tennis, with Miss Flynn, and swimming, under Mrs. Cain's guidance, meet on Mondays. With their sponsor, Miss Boehm, the girls who take modern dancing get together on Mondays and Tuesdays. Every Monday the girls who enjoy ice skating meet with Mrs. Smith.

Each sport functions with the help of sport managers. The following were the managers: Bowling, Joyce Robbins and Sue Ginsberg; volleyball, Dorothy Jones and Mariko Soma; softball and basketball, Arlene Chew and Charlotte Lee; modern dancing, Carol Leeds and Lea Malfanti; horseback riding, Sue Herlick and Nancy Leach; tennis, Marilyn Munter and Sandy Dickey; swimming, Sharon Deming and Pat Marquis; and ice skating, Diane Doyle and Anne Merritt.

The GAA officers for the fall term of 1955 were President Joanne Davies, Secretary Terry Yasukochi, and Clerk of Awards Jerrell Jacobs. The spring term officers were Dorothy Jones, president, and Sharon Deming, secretary.

AAA PAGEANT

LOWELL 6—SACRED HEART 0

Halfback Bob Oddone scored the abbreviated game's only touchdown, after latching on to a bad pitchout from quarterback Bob Lom and galloping 88 yards to the end zone.

LOWELL 26—MISSION 7

Looking like some of the powerful teams of old, Lowell swept past the befuddled 1954 champs in its first league game of the season. Mission, fresh from a defeat at the hands of Washington one week earlier, entered the stadium almost fighting mad, but nevertheless could not hold down the somewhat heavier Indians.

Quarterback Bob Lom steered the team to three of the touchdowns, taking advantage of Lowell's split-T formation for steady gains from bucks, sweeps, and short passes.

Mission knotted up the contest at 7-7 just before half time, however, on an 18-yard pass from Bob Higginbotham to Vern Ferguson, and the game wasn't put on ice until Lowell again scored in the third quarter.

LOWELL 7—LINCOLN 34

Lowell entered its second game fighting and eager for a playoff berth, but failed to stop the hog-wild and hustling Mustangs. Most of the damage was done on the ground, with the Lincoln team pounding Lowell's line for 399 yards. Stan Glass, Link halfback, gathered 173 yards by himself and scored twice.

The Indians' only touchdown came in the second quarter, when Eric Mackintosh broke through from six yards out, shortly after he had taken a 19-yard pass from Phil Sevier on a fake punt play.

Two Lincoln end zone pushes were turned back in the third quarter. The first was foiled when Tom Yasukochi intercepted Art Von Wronski's pass on the Lowell three; the other time Glass fumbled on the four.

LOWELL 28—SACRED HEART 24

Lowell managed to top a spirited but insufficient Sacred Heart team late in the game, turning the trick on four one-pointers neatly kicked by Tom Yasukochi.

Sacred Heart blazed away in the first few minutes, grabbing a loose ball on the kickoff to Lowell and taking the ball on the 12-yard line. Arnold then went over for the tally.

Lowell's first score was set up on a blocked punt, Sevier running to the TD after three plays. The remaining three were a result of a Lom-to-Oddone, a Sevier-to-Mattson, and a Lom one-yard QB sneak.

LOWELL 20—ST. IGNATIUS 0

Lowell entered its third victory of the season in the books, scoring three TDs on marches of 81, 76, and 70 yards. Combining the drive of powerful back Eric Mackintosh and the passing and faking of field general Bobby Lom, the Indians hammered their way through the Wildcat defense in their most decisive conquest thus far.

LOWELL 13—POLY 33

Poly remained undefeated against Lowell for its 13th straight contest, despite the fact that the two teams entered the traditional on at least even terms. Although fighting hard and hustling all the way, never for an instant did the Indians even scare their somewhat sturdier opponents.

The Parrots went ahead for keeps after only three minutes of play in the first quarter, on Bob Stone's 34-yard pass to Roosevelt Taylor. The next came in the second quarter, after Poly recovered a fumble on the Lowell 43 and passed to a TD, and from there on it was Poly all the way.

Bobby Lom again engineered all of Lowell's scoring, moving the Indians deep into Poly territory on passes to set up Eric Mackintosh's 6-yard run in the third quarter, and a 27-yard pass to Walt Keough in the fourth.

LOWELL 20—WASHINGTON 18

Tom Yasukochi's deadly aim on the goal posts again proved the margin of victory, as he and his mates struggled to top the scrappy Eagles in the final period. Tom booted the two telling one-pointers on three attempts.

After Oddone had already taken the ball over for a TD once, Jim Nolan snagged a stray Washington pass and romped 28 yards with only seconds to play in the first half. The third tally came when Lowell drove 70 yards, climaxing with a 14-yard Lom to Sevier pass.

LOWELL 14—GALILEO 31

After coming through in winning colors in most of their tough ones, the Indians were humiliated by one of the weakest teams in the league, 31-14. Most of the damage was done on interceptions, the Lions swiping five from Bob Lom, three of which led to scores.

Lowell's only two TDs came through Lom's heaves, however, the first on an Oddone reception in the second quarter, the second on a Kettleson catch in the fourth period. Tom Yasukochi kicked both extra points.

LOWELL 7—BALBOA 28

Although a first division contender at the beginning of the season, Lowell faded badly in the home stretch and wound up beaten badly by their final opponents.

SEMI-FINALS

LOWELL 13—POLY 39

Revengeful but outmanned, Lowell made a futile assault on Poly in the semi-finals, with the Parrots, incidentally, going on to take the AAA championship from Balboa.

Leading at half time by the bare margin of a conversion, the Indians faded in the final half. Poly continued to pound at the line and work the aerials relentlessly, putting together enough tallies to not only top the Cards, but bring them to their knees.

Quarterback Al Clark did brilliant work, working the ball into Poly territory for Lowell's first score, Lom eventually taking it five yards to pay dirt. The Cards' first score came on a 10-yard run by Bob Oddone.

JUNIOR VARSITY FOOTBALL RECAP

The junior varsity footballers finished fifth in league competition, losing only to Lincoln, St. Ignatius, and Galileo, while tieing Poly in a game which saw two touchdowns and conversions in the last four minutes when Poly was leading 20-6.

This was typical of the type of hustle the future varsity members displayed. Coach Milton commented that his squad had perhaps the best passing attack in the league, Randall Garrison to Tony Patch and Bert Ponig (it was Garrison, incidentally, who heaved the two telling touchdown passes mentioned above).

Also worthy of mention are John Bootes (fullback), Tony Ellis (center), and Carl Jackson (guard).

FROSH-SOPH FOOTBALL

Although the frosh-soph football team was rained out half of their schedule, they managed to put in three spirited battles against Lincoln, Sacred Heart, and Balboa. The scores, respectively, were 33-7, 12-0, and 25-13, Lowell being on the short end of all three.

Coach Bob Buckley attributes the bad showing to an injured backfield, which was continually cut down all season by sprained ankles and other mishaps. The line, however, was considerably better.

Bill Cobb (center), Frank Halldorson (end), Dick Lindsley (tackle), and Ben Pope (guard) were particularly promising.

Soccer Team Places Fourth

The soccer team, rarely a winning group at Lowell, ended a fairly successful season in a tie for fourth place with the Balboa Buccaneers. The Bucs, however, were awarded the play-off berth as they had previously defeated the Redmen in regular season play.

The death knell sounded for the booters in the concluding game of the season when the Indians could do no better than a scoreless tie with arch-rival Polytechnic. A win over the Parrots would have insured the Redmen sole possession of fourth place as the Balboans had previously terminated their schedule and could not improve their ranking.

On the credit side of their record the Lowells boast a victory over a highly rated contingent from Washington, who fell by a 2-1 margin. Lincoln was also among the booters' victims and succumbed, 2-0, while St. Ignatius was convincingly waxed by a 4-2 score.

A hard-charging Mission eleven edged the Cards, 1-0, in a bitter and hard fought contest. The Indians threatened throughout the game but failed to register on the scoreboard.

The aforementioned Polytechnics managed the heart-breaking tie as did Galileo, 1-1. The bitterest pill to swallow was the 2-0 defeat suffered at the hands of Balboa

Cross Country Wins Eleven Straight

Featuring some of the finest runners in recent years, the Lowell harriers galloped their way to eleven straight victories, only to be nosed out in the All-City tournament by Washington, 45-50.

Ed Chavez turned in first-place performances in every race he ran in, except the one mentioned above, which he lost because, according to Coach Barney Wolf, he thought he had already finished when John Hammond skipped past him.

In the Northern California championship at Palo Alto, Lowell finished third. Ed Chavez ran the 1.95 mile Stanford Golf Club course in 10:17, which incidentally was four seconds better than John Hammond's time.

Fair Season for Lightweights

The Lowell lightweight basketball teams had moderately successful seasons this year, giving their opponents consistently hard and spirited fights. Two Indians were voted All-City, Dennis Hess (120's) and Eddie Jackson (110's).

The 110's were defeated only by St. Ignatius, while the 120's met defeat at the hands of five of their eight opponents.

Some of the outstanding members of the squads were Hess, Eddie Shaskan, Lloyd Simi (120's); Reggie Tendell, Rickey Colsky, Jackson (110's).

130 Basketball

The 130's were hard hit when Neil Urano and Rich Hudson failed to make the weight. Starting out on a sad note, the 30's lost to Mission, 41-35. Next came the Washington tilt. The Eaglets ripped the defending champions to shreds, 60-23.

Then came the exciting but disappointing game with S.H. Lowell's 30's stooped to a convincing 41-29 defeat. In their fourth game of the season Lincoln prevailed, waxing Lowell 46-28. Bob Oddone again gained high-point honor, while George Wilson, Leo Martinez and "Bucky" Reed tied for second in scoring.

In their best game of the year the 30's beat Galileo, 53-38. Paced by Bob Oddone's 14 points, and the driving "Bucky" Reed, the team led all the way to win their first game of the season.

Lowell's 30's started rolling in their sixth game by scoring a convincing victory over Balboa, 45-34. Bob Oddone and "Bucky" Reed led their mates by scoring 12 points, while George Dagnino and Leo Martinez followed close behind.

The Lowell 30's gave Poly quite a tussle before losing to the Parrots, 49-45. The game could have gone either way. Pete Williams led the Indians with 15 tallies, followed by "Bucky" Reed, Bob Oddone, Leo Martinez, Magnus Nagase, and Vance Strange.

The Lowell 30's ended their basketball season on a bright note by beating Saint Ignatius, 51-37. Unexpectedly the Little Indians walked over the "Cats." Bucky Reed led with 15 tallies while Bob Oddone, George Dagnino, Pete Williams, and Magnus Nagase followed respectively. Others in on the kill were Leo Martinez, Vance Strange, Darryl L. Kaplan, George Wilson, and Josh Eppinger.

Varsity Basketball

LOWELL 33—MISSION 26

Lowell inaugurated the 1955-56 cage season with a 33-26 triumph over defense-minded Mission at Kezar Pavilion.

The Missions content with a strong ball-control game froze the casaba during the earlier moments of the initial stanza. With 2:20 minutes gone in the quarter, Lowell got their hands on the ball for the first time and Tom Meschery promptly tanked a 20-footer to give the Indians a lead which they never relinquished.

Meschery was exceptionally deadly from the outside during the contest and registered 13 markers in his first outing.

LOWELL 49—WASHINGTON 44

The Neffmen overcame a cold first half and squeezed by Washington, 49-44, in a thriller at Kezar Pavilion.

An outstanding 23-point performance by Tom Meschery, as well as the dominance of both backboards by the Lowell whiz, pulled the game out of the fire for the Redskins.

The Eagles led, 20-19, at the half, mainly on the strength of the sharp-shooting of Jerry Mann and Harvey Merriouns.

LOWELL 51—LINCOLN 33

The Lowell cagers prevailed over an ambitious Abraham Lincoln quintet, 51-33, at Kezar Pavilion.

Although trailing at the half, 16-20, the Indian big guns—Tom Meschery, Ken Balling, and Jim Caranica—finally zeroed in on the Links' basket and unerringly sank shot after shot to virtually sweep their hapless adversaries off the court.

Balance in their attack was the Redskins' main advantage as high point man Jim Caranica copped 12 markers, followed closely by Meschery with 10, and Balling with eight.

LOWELL 55—SACRED HEART 39

The Lowell Indians continued their victorious ways with a 55-39 rout of the Sacred Heart Irish at Kezar Pavilion.

Enjoying a large lead early in the game, Coach Benny Neff mercifully called off the starters and swept the bench in the second stanza.

Ken Balling left the court for the last time in an Indian uniform halfway in the third period; he topped all scorers with 18 markers. Teammate Tom Meschery retired with 16 digits, 10 of them garnered in the third quarter.

LOWELL 66—GALILEO 42

A well balanced Lowell quintet overwhelmed the Galileo Lions, 66-42, at Kezar Pavilion.

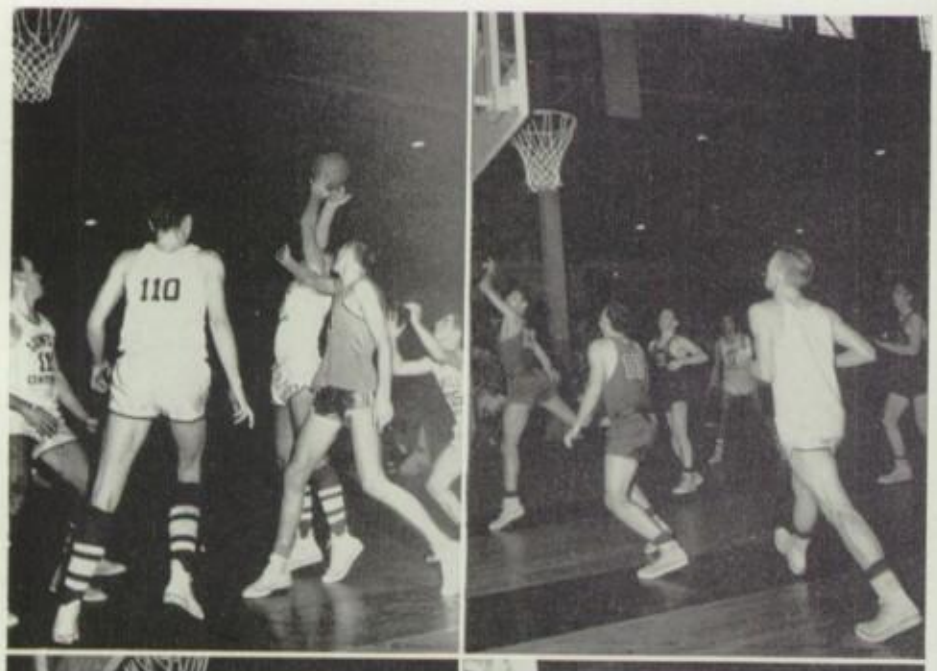
All-City forward Tom Meschery led the scoring with 20 markers while three other Indians tallied in double figures.

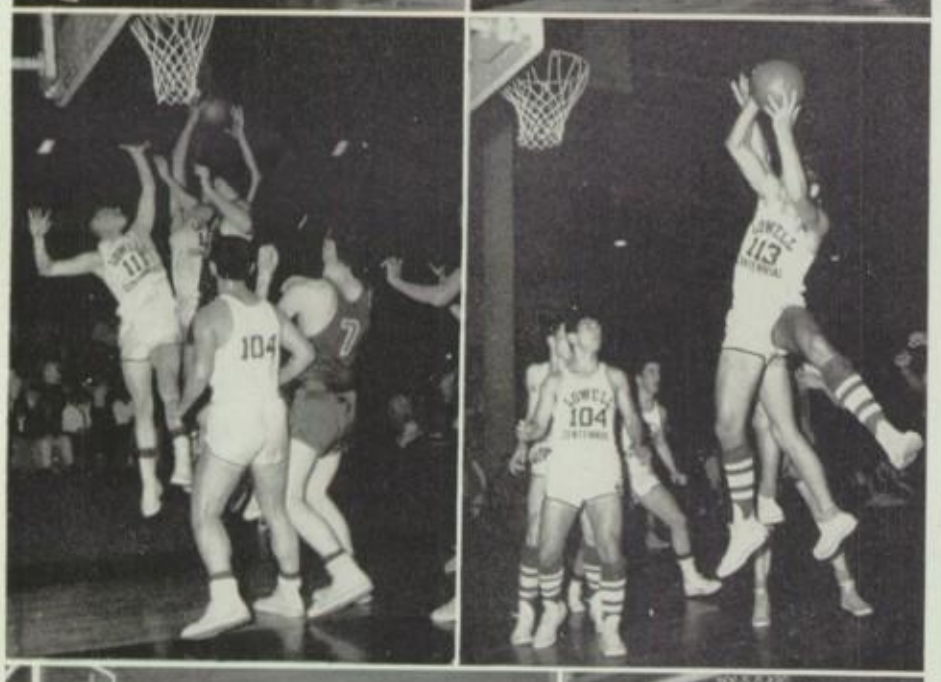
The outmanned Galileans were never in the contest as the classy Redshirts swept to their fifth consecutive triumph over AAA opponents.

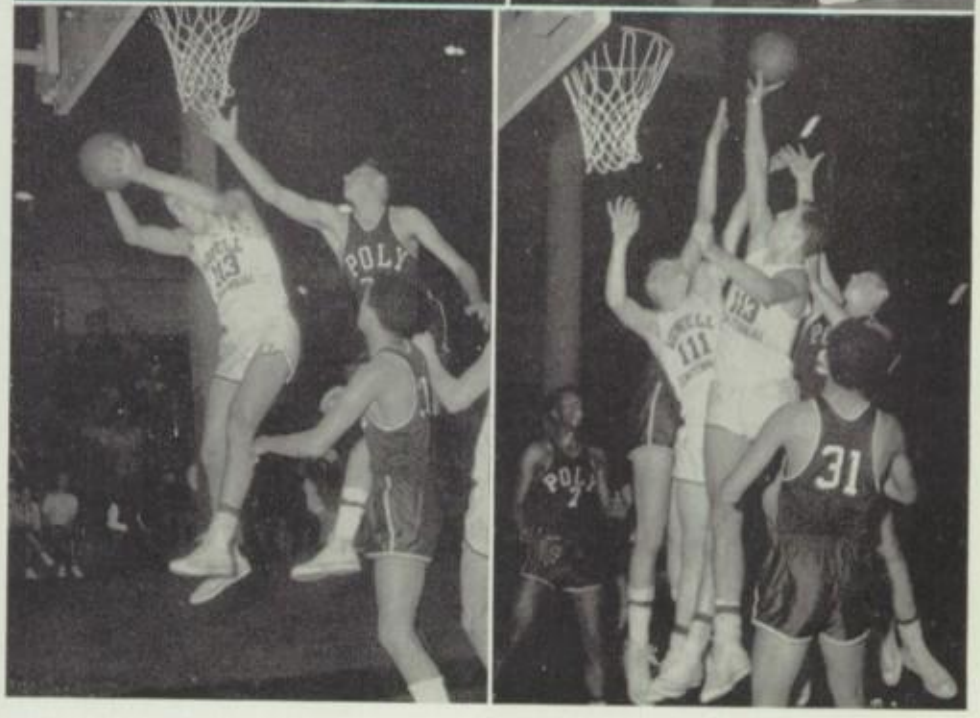
The Redmen played without the services of five graduated lettermen.

LOWELL 42—BALBOA 28

The victorious Indians continued their winning ways with a surprisingly easy 44-28 triumph over the Balboa Buccaneers at C.C.S.F. gym.







The game was expected to be a severe test for the Red machine who had lost two starters to mid-term graduation. However, the Neffmen were never in trouble and won handily.

Tom Meschery, who scored 13 points, captured high point honors. Jim and Nick Caranica, Lowell's hustling guards, put on fine performances, each tallying 12 digits.

Forfeit Ends Championship Hopes

LOWELL 40—POLY 46

The sky-scraping Polytechnic Parrots knocked the high riding Indians from the ranks of the unbeaten with a 46-40 comeback victory at Kezar Pavilion.

Tom Meschery's unstoppable jump-shot which netted him 19 points led the Lowells to a 24-21 half-time lead over the Parrots. However, the surprising Parrots with their decisive height advantage dominated the second half.

The Redmen staged a rally of their own in the closing minutes to provide for a climactic finish. Jim Caranica tanked two charities to bring Lowell within two points of the victors at 40-42 with 50 seconds remaining in the game. Ten seconds later Jim unwittingly fouled Gene Womack who in turn sank his two free throws to ice the game for the Parrots.

LOWELL 28—ST. IGNATIUS 44

Led by prep phenom Fred LaCour, the S.I. Wildcats humbled Lowell with a stunning 44-28 victory at a jam-packed Kezar Pavilion.

S.I. maintained a commanding lead throughout and only in the opening quarter with the score knotted at 4-4 was Lowell respectably in the contest.

Tom Meschery, selected to this year's All-City quintet, rang up 15 markers but failed to contain "Fabulous Freddie" of the 'Cats, who led the scoring with 21 digits.

THE FORFEITS

On the eve before the S.I. crucial it was discovered by league officials and by Principal J. A. Perino that an ineligible player, Roy Collins, participated in three of Lowell's contests.

The officials ruled that the Indians forfeit the three games.

For the first time since 1947 Lowell has failed to attend the playoffs; the team ended the season with an official three won and five lost record, placing fifth in the final AAA standings.

Junior Varsity Baseball Team

The '56 season was a new one for Lowell baseball; it was the first year the newly organized J.V. baseball league was in operation. While Lowell's first team failed to be a serious championship threat, they managed to win two league contests, beating Washington and Lincoln.

The pitching assignments were handled by Ralph Miranda, Vance Strange, and Eldon McIrvin; the latter two also covered third base. Alternating catchers were Robert Lehmann and Dan Marble, while Paul Epp and Richard Locati played first and second base respectively. The shortstop was amply covered by Bob Anoda and the fielders were Bob Basso, Larry Feldman, Leo Hutkovsky, Alan Luck and Duarte Lopes. The team was managed by Dave McCormack and Paul Poling.

Mr. Buckley was the team's coach.

Varsity Baseball

LOWELL 3 — LINCOLN 4

The Lincoln Mustangs edged the Lowell Indians 4-3 with a four run outburst in the fourth inning. The Links capitalized on two Redskin errors and two singles for their tallies.

Indian hurler Jerry Meador suffered the loss although pitching a creditable five-hitter. Meador also blasted a run scoring triple in the Indian half of the fourth.

Bob Curley's home run was a high spot of the game.

LOWELL 1 — SACRED HEART 7

In their second outing of the season the Lowell nine was solidly trounced 7-1 by defending champion Sacred Heart.

Although the victims managed but five safe blows off Tribe starting hurler Bri Lyttle, shaky support which included four miscues cost the Indians the game.

Lyttle accounted for the lone Lowell tally when he doubled and later scored in the fourth frame.

The Tribe managed six singles off Irish moundsman Alvarado who was credited with victory.

LOWELL 3 — MISSION 2

There was joy and dancing on Hayes Street as Lowell finally won an AAA baseball game.

The victims at the end of the long drought were the Mission Bears who succumbed to the Tribe for the first time since 1934.

Taking advantage of Mission boots and wildness on the part of Celaya, the losing pitcher, the Redskins struck for two tallies in the second inning. The highlight of that rally was a steal home by Stamos.

The Bears came back to equalize the score but the Tribe was not to be denied. In the fourth frame Tony Patch unloaded a might triple, scoring Meador for the deciding run.

Meador went the route for the win.

LOWELL 3 — IGNATIUS 4

After winning one in a row, the Lowell Indians dropped a heartbreaking 4 to 3 decision to St. Ignatius.

Bri Lyttle, who suffered the defeat, handcuffed the Cats in the hits department, allowing but two safe blows. However, his own wildness betrayed him. He surrendered a pair of runs in the initial frame when he unleashed a wild pitch to top off a couple of free passes.

Going into the sixth inning with the score knotted at 3-3 Lyttle walked a man and then hit the next batter. Coach Drysdale promptly decided that that was all for the tiring hurler, and replaced him with Jerry Meador. Meador proceeded to walk in the winning run!

The Tribe provided a nine hit attack but were contained by the clutch-pitching of "Cat" Sullivan.

LOWELL 8 — POLY 9

In a wild, free scoring affair Poly out-tallied Lowell for a 9 to 8 decision.

The Tribe took advantage of a shaky Parrot defense and hurler Knope's wildness to scurry across the plate eight times on but three safeties.

Poly broke loose for nine blows, however it was the lack of an Indian defense that accounted for the defeat. Lowell committed seven errors.

LOWELL 1 — GALILEO 6

On May 9 the Lowell nine met the league leading Galileo Lions at Big Rec.

When the smoke and the dust had settled after the battle the Tribe found themselves on the short end of a 6-1 score.

The Indians, however, managed to avert a shutout in the last half of the sixth frame when Al Zelaya singled home Bob Curley from second. This run-producing single ended Lowell's scoring production for the day.

LOWELL 5 — WASHINGTON 0

Jerry Meador, stylish Lowell moundsman, hurled a brilliant four-hitter to shut out Washington 5-0.

Jerry Shobar provided the power with a prodigious clout, good for three bases, driving in a pair of runs to provide Meador with a cushion.

Meador's mates supported him defensively, for a change, handling all of their chances flawlessly.

Golfers Take Second Place

The Indian divoteers had a successful season this year as they managed to take second place. Comprising the six man team were Harvey Brody, Dick Canatela, Rich Shermano, Charlie Levin, Steve Abel, and Mike Tanzier.

The entire team was capable of shooting in the 70's and Harvey Brody and Dick Canatela were the best one-two punch in the A.A.A. league. Both of these boys averaged scores of 71 and 72 during the practice and regular season matches.

In practice matches the Indians met Riordan, Capuchino, and the Cal Frosh. They beat Riordan twice, Capuchino once, and lost a close match to the Cal Frosh, 14-13.

The regular season started with a sharp 6-3 win over the Lincoln Mustangs, who were considered to have one of the best teams in the league. Medalist of the day was Harvey Brody.

The next three matches included Balboa, Poly, and Mission, all of which the Indians won easily by scores of 9-0. The entire team looked good in these matches.

Lowell's only loss of the season came from Washington, 6½-2½. If it wasn't for the fact that the team fell behind at the start, the Indians might have pulled a victory. After the first five holes the entire team was down and they just fell short of a thrilling comeback.

Track and Field Teams

Lowell's '56 track team under the direction of Coach Barney Wolf completed a strenuous practice season which included several grueling meets, according to Coach Wolf, proved very successful; his only regret was meeting the strong Eagles as the league opener. The '56 league opener ended as predicted, but still disappointing; Washington dropped the high spirited Indians 88-33. Lowell's first place standouts were Bob Young's 2:07.2 in the 880, Tim Curtis' :52.3 in the 440, Ross Shoaf's eleven foot pole vault, Paul Alexander's discus throw of 119 feet 7 inches. Jim Bush and Jack Schwadron paced the 130's to victory.

The Mission Bears fell easily under the poised hand of the Redmen. Tim Curtis' victory in the low hurdles and the high jump, Rich Hudson's winning in the dashes, Ed Chavez's 4:44.4 mile, and Paul Alexander's 113-10 discus left the Bears stymied. Jim Bush and Henry Kornfeld led the 30's, and both broke Lowell's high hurdles record. The 120 tracksters took a convincing 38-28 victory over the stunned Bears.

In the following meet with St. Ignatius, the Indians' varsity was edged out 64-49. The 20's, however, plowed their way past the Cats to a 47-21 margin, while the 30's filled out a 69-24 victory. The 30's took every event except the 880. Jim Caranica broke the school record for the shot by putting it 52-10; Rich Berk's 9.5 in the high hurdles was also a new Lowell record. In the 20's division two more school records were shattered. Ed Jackson tossed the shot 45-11 and Ross Shoaf poled 12 feet.

In their next meet Lincoln's varsity dominated 74-39, and the 30's also toppled to a 52-43 defeat Only the powerful little 20's came through with a smashing 43-25 victory. Even in losing Lowell's top two division remained unsurpassed in some events; among there were Tim Curtis' :10.2 in the 100 and :22.2 in the 220, Rich Hudson's 180 lows, and (All City) Ross Shoaf's 11-6 pole vault.

Ed Chavez smashed the school record for the mile 4:35, as the Lowell varsity track team was downed by the Balboa Bucs' 79½-41½ victory, but the 20's slumped to a 44-24 defeat. Tim Curtis took both varsity sprints, the 100 in :10.5 and the 220 in :22.5 to become the only double winner for Lowell.

Outstanding performances were turned in by Bob Oddone and Sam Sekino in the 30's division. Oddone ran :53.4 in the 440 and Sekino was clocked in 14.6 in the low hurdles.

All three of Lowell's divisions bowed before the Polytechnic Parrots. The varsity, which lost by a score of 89-24, had some fine performances in Bob Young's 2.04.6 in the 880, Ed Chavez's 4:42.1 mile, and Ross Shoaf's 12 foot pole vault. Jim Caranica, the 30's top shot putter, got off a 54 foot heave. While the 20's lost 50 to 18, Eddie Jackson broke his previous record by throwing the 8 pound shot 48 feet 10 inches. Other winners were Pat Kelleher, Mike Tobriner, and Hiedo Saiki.

All three of Galileo's divisions fell below the thundering spikes of the Lowell Indians. Lowell's varsity headed a 78⅓-34⅔ victory over hapless Gal, while the 130's and 120's won a 70½-13½, and 40-27 victory, respectively. Ed Chavez paced the varsity with a 4:42.8 rain-soaked mile. The relay team swept through with the time of 2:31.6.

The 130's were proud of wins from Jim Bush, Bob Oddone, Jack Schwadron, Mike Tobriner, Pat Kelleher, Victor Brochard, and Tony Mathios. Filling out the wins for the 20's were Ave Cobo, Norman Quong, Hiedo Saiki, Alan Belkin, and Ed Jackson.

Swimming Squads Have In and Out Season

The 1956 edition of the Lowell High swimming teams proved themselves to be a well-rounded group of fine athletes. Working together under the direction of Coach Bill Feiling all three divisions placed high in the final standings in the All-City meet.

In the varsity meets, Lowell lost to Lincoln, Washington, Galileo, S.I., and Poly. They pulled down Balboa and Mission

38-27 and 42-17, respectively. Starring for the varsity was All-City candidate Ralph Gilman. Ralph won all the free-style events he entered; he also helped the medley relay team to three victories. Others who placed in all meets were Ed McKenna, Ed Shaskan, Pete Cantou, and Peter Goorjian.

In the light weight meets, the 130's came out on top three times, beating Galileo 13-0, Mission 29-16, and Balboa 38-10. The 30's were paced by Dick Petronic, Cliff Sansot, Stan Koenigsberger, and Josh Eppinger. The little 20's stayed ahead of their fellow divisions, scoring the best record of wins, five out of six. Their only loss being to the new '56 champions, Washington, 27-30.

The 20's came within three points of beating Washington and winning the round-robin championship. Rich Colsky, captain of the second place 20's, accounted for five firsts in the 50 yard breaststroke, and the 50 yard backstroke. Others who placed in all meets were John Marks, diving; Pete Samuels, 50 yard breaststroke; and Brad Nicol in the 100 yard free-style.

The varsity, 130's and the 120's all participated in the All-City swimming championship. The varsity took third place, while both the 20's and the 30's came in second. The only member of the varsity to place first was Ralph Gilman in the 100 yard free-style. The unlimited team placed third in the four-man medley relay. It was composed of Pete Urrea, Ed McKenna, Ralph Gilman, and Pete Cantou.

In the 130 pound division, Josh Eppinger placed third in the 100 yard breaststroke. The 30's medley relay and the four-man relay team also placed in the All-City meet. The four man relay took first, while the medley relay team placed third. The four-man relay was made up of Cliff Sansot, Josh Eppinger, Tom Inouye, and Kirk Patronic.

The 120 pound team placed second with Ricky Colsky taking a first in the 50 yard free-style and second in the 50 yard back stroke. Brad Nicol placed third in the 100 yard free-style.

In diving John Marks of the 120 pound team took first place with 142.30 points. Ed Shaskan placed third for the 30's with 134.50 points.

TENNIS TEAM

This year's tennis team, while not as good as in previous years, more than held its own against all opponents except Washington and Burlingame high schools.

Faced with the loss of nine members of the team, Coach Livingstone nevertheless trained many players, some transfers from other sports, to fill their places. Leading players were Jim Watson, Vic Sashin, Larry Westdahl and Larry Draper.

The team made the finals against Washington but lost 4-3.

Going places in '56

It is a proud thing to be the alumnus of a school with a tradition. For over 100 years Lowell has been equipping graduates to make their way in the world . . . and the bright eyes and bright minds of the class of '56 tell us old grads that they're going to do us one better in making a success of their lives.

There's a lot of history in 100 years . . . and Lowell educators can be proud of the contribution their alumni have made in shaping the business and cultural history of San Francisco.

(Incidentally if any of you alumni are thinking of going places in '56 . . . you'll be going in style in one of our new '56 Chevrolets. The hot ones even hotter this year . . . and I'd like any one of you to stop in and take a drive. I'll guarantee you'll enjoy it.)

Acknowledgments

To create a book of this size and content was a tremendous undertaking. I will always remember on the first day of school, Mr. Buckley holding up a college annual and saying "This is what this year's Red and White will be like," then he characteristically added what was to become the slogan of the staff, "Get to work." The staff got to work; at times the tasks were simple and interesting, other times they seemed impossible, such as identifying the names of alumni in old snapshots, or compiling all the Lowell grads who are lawyers. Often we wondered if the book would ever be compiled from the jumble of material we collected as the months went on. The fact that it was possible is due to the wonderful assistance received from so many people. Without them there would be no book, and it is here that I would like to express my sincerely felt appreciation.

If there is one person who deserves the credit for the book it is Mr. Buckley, our advisor. It was his idea to have a book commemorating Lowell's one hundred years, and in carrying out the project he has devoted not only his school hours but countless weekends and vacations. Any questions that arose he answered, any task too difficult for the staff he did. The staff and I feel greatly indebted to Mr. Buckley and we would like to express our inadequate thanks here.

The photographs for a book like this are countless, the job of taking them is exasperating, but Mr. and Mrs. Ken Hall of Plymouth Studios did a fine job and we are very grateful to them. Also thanks are due to Marvin Bonds, Vic Anderson, and Bob Thain of the California Arts and Engraving Company for their splendid assistance; the S. K. Smith Company for the covers, and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Watson of the Lexicon Press who spent many extra hours in order that the book would be printed on time.

I want to express my thanks also to the students who worked on the book, Bob Jeung and Karina Kang were responsible for the cover; Jerry Falk for the many action shots. The staff deserves credit for their work and I am sorry I do not have space to mention them individually.

The combined efforts of all these people have resulted in this yearbook and it is with pride that we place it in your hands. All those connected with the book had one purpose in mind—to create a lasting tribute to a fine school. We hope you will find the book as interesting as we do, and that while perusing its pages many happy experiences will be recalled to mind.
